A Final Look at the Big
Red Festival

CELEBRATE GOOD TIMES!

BOOM, BANG, WHOOSH, EEEEE, POP!

The air is heavy with excitement. Crowds mill around, shoving and pushing, waiting, expectantly for that final burst of color and splendor. At last, the sky is shredded with blade thin streaks of light . . . blue, green, red and gold! The crowds cheer and the enthusiasm is at an exhilarating pitch. Once again, the crowds have enjoyed the spectacular fireworks at the Blue Water Festival. Celebration is in the air.

This year the Port Huron High School Big Reds would like to continue the celebration throughout the school year. Colorful events such as homecoming, dances, parties, trips, and assemblies will add variety and increase the festive mood.

We would like to show the world that excitement can be found everywhere! Welcome to our celebration!

Dear Diary,

As I sit here and write about my final chapter of childhood, I think of all the wonderful memories I have. This past year has been so overflowing with events that, at times, I feel like an overstuffed suitcase. The best memories, though, were of graduation.

The senior assembly was so sad because it was my final goodbye to my school—my childhood. But, the whole class danced away their sorrows at the big Saturday night "Senior Prom". It was so unusual to see my everyday chums dressed to kill. Sue Ballard, our class president, knocked them dead in her romantic formal. Every so often, people would take a break by the fountain and sit and talk. Many of my friends such as Doug Stuart, David Johnson, Cheryl Thomas, Denise McCain and Sharyn Malachi were there quite frequently. They must have been exhausted from dancing. I also saw pretty Tracie Spear with her escort Kim Miller. Everyone looked great! The Prom was fun, but after was a bit more true to form. The following Sunday afternoon was Baccalaureate. Everyone was quite subdued. I started to wonder if it was caused by the solemn ceremony or the "other things" from the night before. Then came the final ceremony. Commencement exercise is held in the McMorran Arena. This is our final link with childhood and what a way to go! Amidst excited chattering, hugs and kisses, we close this chapter of our lives. Well, Diary, now it is college, or maybe marriage, or maybe I'll bum around. I can't believe I'm a high school graduate. I will miss you, PHHS!

CROWNING

Homecoming Queen Sula Cavis and her escort, senior Scott Hall, dance the night away to the sounds of Dwarf, a popular Ann Arbor band. Senior Troy Dixon escorted Senior Homecoming Court member Roni Lloyd to the bandstand where they awaited the announcement of the 1982-83 Homecoming Queen. Scott Hall attends to the Homecoming Queen Sula Cavis. Approximately 250 people attended. Homecoming has been a part of PHHS since 1953. Former alumni return to share in the joy of crowning the new Homecoming Queen.

"The band had an awesome setup and they played some good jams throughout the night. The environment was lively and couples were necking all over the place," said Junior Matt Frazer.

Senior Michele Wetzel said, "The night was full of excitement. The band was jammin' and the students were rocking. The globe was spinning and the light was flickering."

"CELEBRATE"

Senior Jim Vani proved he could hold the most at the yearly hamburger and coke attack. The other attackers were Denny Klaus, Jim Loxton, and Jeff Harrington. Paul Cummings and Rob Glombowski hop to a 2nd place victory with Steve Phillips and Kurt Hinkley trailing a few steps behind. Key Club held a car smash to raise money for Belle Beauvais' talking machine. Determined Scott Hall and Brian Lyon came in first for the wheelbarrel race. Ron Thomas and Mike Hardie fought them until the end. The Juniors proved they are a group to be reckoned with as they tugged to victory.

Colorful Rena McNaimies, Bethany Barth, and Bea Ann Reid show that punkers have style too!

Teachers have spirit too! Here Mr. Chapman and his freshmen Michelle Patterson, Roger Fiedler, and Lisa Cummings sweat it out!

THE PEANUTS GANG

Full of color, the Snoopy and Woodstock senior float received a well-deserved first place in the October 22 Homecoming Parade float display. Seniors spent a lot of time designing and constructing this prize winning float for a one day occasion. It was a great moment for seniors when their float was awarded first place after many hours of hard work by them and their sponsor, Colleen McMullen.

Pac-Man was built by the band-boosters club. This float added a nice touch to the parade. "I think it's great!" said sophomore Dennis Brown.

HAS BIG RED SPIRIT

Beat the Shamrocks, the freshman float pulls away with second place. Larry Moeller, Superintendent of Schools, and Marsha Campbell, President of the Board of Education observe the Homecoming floats before the Parade begins. The Junior Class takes third as Charlie Brown runs up to kick the football, but Lucy pulls it away. Woodstock flies into fourth as the class of '85' takes the final place with their float "Fly to Victory".

Mighty Seniors with the help of Miss McMullen worked hard at River District Glass to produce the #1 Joe Cool float. Enthusiastic Freshmen met under the Blue Water Bridge and constructed Linus with Mrs. Hayes help. Energetic Juniors created Lucy and Charlie Brown at Becky Moeller's house with the help of Miss Ewald. Many Sophomores and Mr. Harrison built Woodstock at Jane McIntire's house. Students, faculty, parents and administrators made homecoming possible.

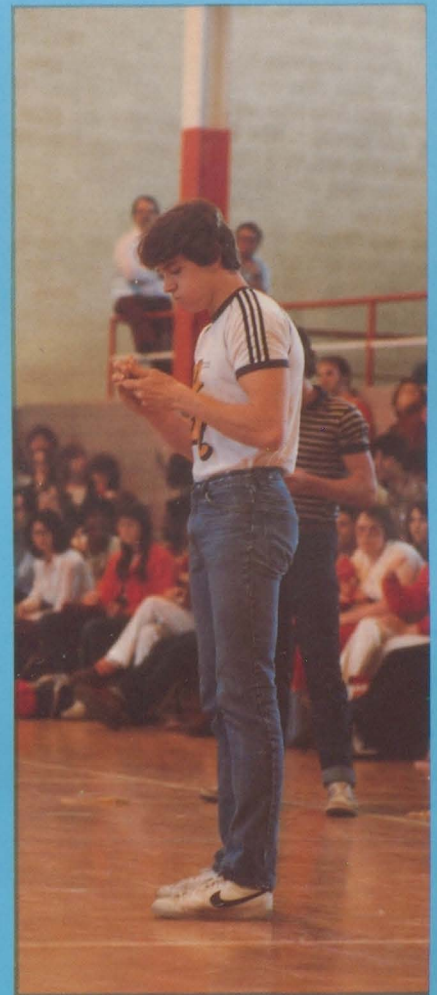

SENIORS IN MOTION

Working to make their "Joe Cool Snoopy" float the best are senior homeroom teacher Mr. Case with John Baunock, Bill Purcell, Shelley Fisher and Ruth Warsinski.

A determined Wayne Moak and Shelley Fischer test their strength against the juniors in the Tug-of-War contest for Spirit Week 82.

Senior class sponsor Miss Colleen McMullen, when asked about the senior class replied, "They have grown since their freshman year. More seniors are involved with spirit and participation."

Starting quarterback Ted Chickonowski proudly displays victory with the Little Brown Jug, after beating Mt. Clemens 20-13. Big eater Jim Nutt shows everyone how fast he can eat! Senior class officers Co-Treasurer Joe Helton, Co-Treasurer Kurt Hinkley, Historian Wendy Woolman, Secretary Dawn Palmateer, Vice President Diane Goltz, and President Ruth Warsinski are proud to lead the class of '83."

Class of '83 Student Council representatives were: Bonnie Harvey, Ruth Warsinski, Sally Kinna, Ellen Hartwig, Kristy Stager, Maureen Lynch, Tina Madson, Lars Gustafsson, Steve Phillips, Erich Ditschman, Kurt Hinkley, Joe Helton, and Stephan Kyle.

SENIORS DO IT ALL

Drum major Stephen Kyle shows that he is the best as he directs the entire Marching Machine.

Besides demonstrating leadership, energy, pride, and spirit, senior Krystal Stein is a picture of contemplation while thinking about the year ahead.

Exchange students didn't know exactly where they were going until the last minute when they were told they would be attending school in Port Huron, Michigan. Their first thought was "Oh no, with all that snow in Michigan, it'll be so cold." Now that they're here, they are enjoying all of Michigan's sights such as Mackinac Island and the Blue Water Bridge. Marika Simonsson said "The people here seem so much friendlier than in Sweden. They come up and start a conversation with us before we've even met. It is really very nice to be involved with such friendly people."

The Australian Connection consists of Kim Tannohill, Tim Barrett, Madeline Klug, and Jane Fowler.

Kim was an Australian exchange student who attended P.H.H.S. in 1980-81. She was in the area last year and came to visit all of her friends here at P.H.

Madeline and Tim were exchange students last year. They enjoyed all of the good times they had as Big Reds. They especially enjoyed having time to visit with Kim. While Madeline and Tim were here, Jane, a student at P.H., discussed with them her planned trip to Australia which was to start in January of 83.

Vibrant Marika Simonsson enjoys being in the SAA as she proudly wears her jersey. Marika and all of the other exchange students are in both SAA and the Big Red Marching Machine. Arrigo and Lars pose with their host family, the Daileys.

THE AUSTRALIAN CONNECTION

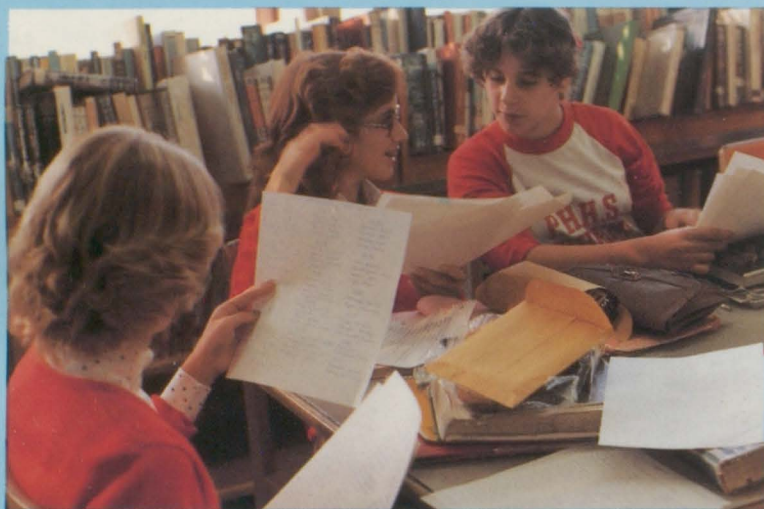

THE FOREIGN CONNECTION

Foreign exchange was started in 1952 by a church group interested in good international relations. What was then an idealistic dream, now spans over 24 countries and has about 7,000 students world-wide. In the past 10 years, we've had over 20 students and many interested visitors. These students, as well as learning from us, have taught us what their country is like.

Even exchange students take time out to clown around in the halls. Marika, Natalie, Arrigo, Tina, and Lars are happy to be at P.H. As Mr. Burgess' captivating talk continues, Tina and Natalie pay close attention.

The Student Council officers for the 1982-83 school year are Parliamentarian Erich Ditschman, President Marcia Ruff, Vice-President Maryann Kruse, and Secretary Crystal Cleaver, who hold Student Council together.

During the weekly Student Council meeting in the library, Roberta Dinger and Tammy Harvey are supposedly planning Homecoming but we all know they are really discussing their latest heart throbs.

Student Council is a vital part of Port Huron High School. With the help of Student Council, we have the following activities: Spirit Week, Homecoming, dances, and assemblies. President Marcia Ruff commented, "Our Student Council is an ambitious and vital part of our school."

"Starting with Freshmen orientation and elections, the student council is busy throughout the year. Homecoming in the fall gives Student Council the chance to spark school spirit and get the entire school working together. Assemblies during the year, special charity projects, and involvement with the Eastern Michigan League of Students all provide outlets for creative spirits." . . . Mr. Burgess, student council director.

SAY YES TO PORT HURON

Warm sunny beaches, beautiful blue lakes, boats and boat races, scenic views, modern and historic buildings, parades and parties, all of this and more can be found in Port Huron.

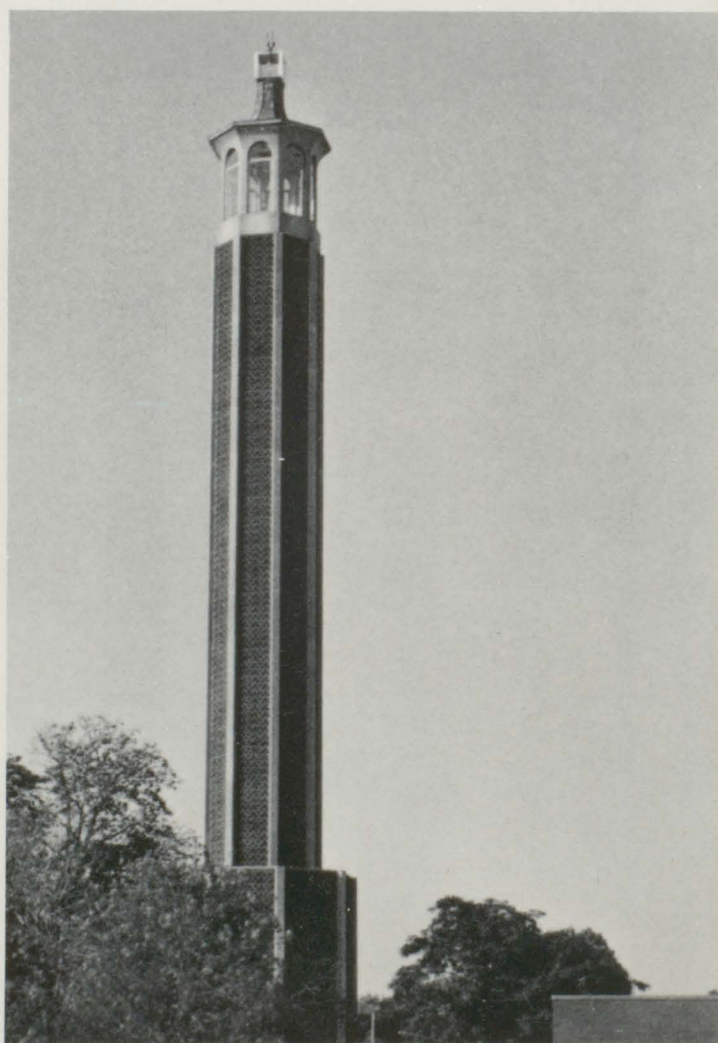

Port Huron students are extremely lucky to live in a town with so much going for it. There is always something to do in Port Huron. The town's activities not only attract residents, but also tourists.

The highlight of the summer festivities in Port Huron is the annual Mackinaw Race. People gather from far and near to watch, party, and participate in it. Two hundred and seventy nine sailboats entered the race. The night before the race the yearly town party takes place on Black River where most of the boats are docked and where you can find many of Port Huron High's students.

School students spend most of their summer sunning themselves on the sandy beaches. As you lay on the beach you can hear sea gulls, radios and the distant sounds of ships going by. It is a great place to gather and have a good time.

Beaches and boats are not the only neat things in Port Huron. There are a lot of old and new buildings that are very interesting. The tower at McMorran Arena is an attention getter. It was built in 1965 and used as a lookout. It has 100 steep stairs, and had to be closed to the public because many people fell down them.

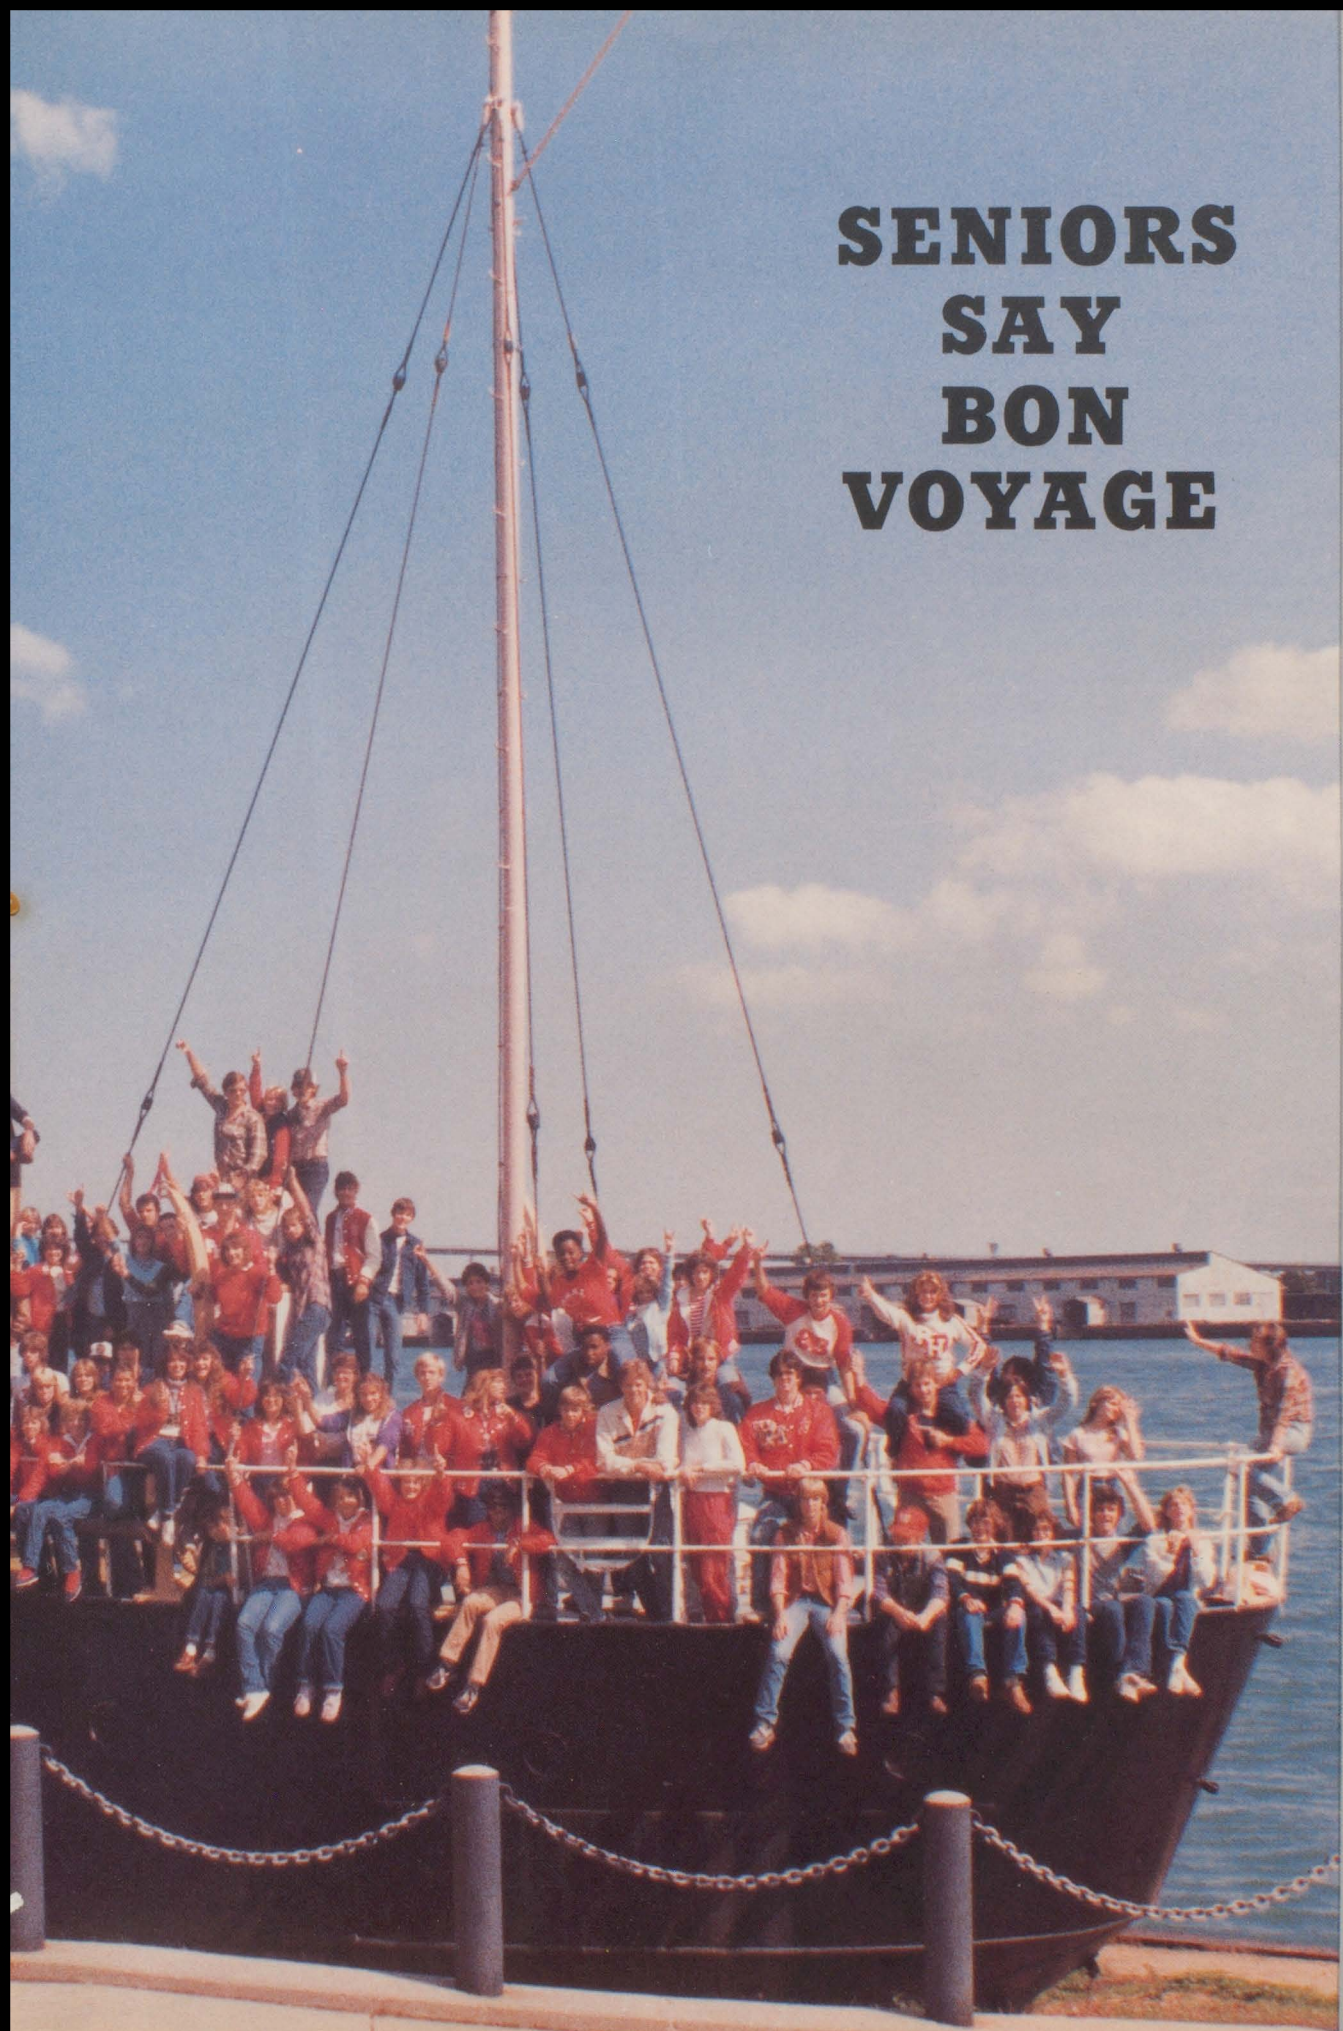

The light house at the Coast Guard Station is another historical site. It was built very poorly in 1825. It collapsed in 1928 during a storm. It was rebuilt in 1929 and is still in use.

Parades are very popular in Port Huron as they are in many cities. The Blue Water Festival Parade is Port Huron's biggest and favorite. People come early in the morning to save a place to sit for the parade that takes place later in the evening. You can find lawn chairs chained to light poles and mail boxes. The parade has a variety of entries such as celebrities, many bands, the Big Red Marching Machine, floats, antique cars, clowns and many more attractions.

You can always find something to do in Port Huron, from hockey games to fishing or if those don't fit your taste you can cruise town on a Friday night. Port Huron has so much going for it. Maybe thats why so many people, SAY YES TO PORT HURON!

SENIORS SAY BON VOYAGE

TOTAL DEVOTION

Time, devotion and pride is the name of the game in band. During the course of the year, the Marching Machine has developed several drum corps routines which it took to St. Petersburg, Florida at the Festival of States Competition. They have competed against some of the most prestigious drum corps in North America.

Band Officers: Treas. Ellen Hartwig, Drum Major Stephan Kyle, Sec. Dawn Wojtoszek, Pres. Jon Guske and Vice-Pres. Tammi Sophia make the band one of the best activities to be in.

Each year, Mr. Eric Payton and Mr. Robert Verran, President of the Band Boosters Organization, raise tens of thousands of dollars to make our band the "Marching Machine" something we can all be proud of. Cadet and Varsity Bands strive to learn the basics. One day they will be the Marching Machine.

THE BAND HAS THE BEAT AND WE'RE MOVING OUT!

Stajarmy is the stage crew group of the band. They setup whatever is necessary for concerts and they load and unload vehicles with needed equipment. 1983 Stajarmy members are: Bill Glenn, Kurt Burda, Willie Watson, Beth Krenke, Maureen Lynch, Kevin Thomas. Second Row: Kim Tinsley, Kathy Chesney, John Kivel, Carrie Angbrandt, Sherry Winkle, Charlie Friedland, and Shawn Pence. Top Row: Jim Harris, Dave Dell, Gerry Gill, and Mike Hardie.

Big Red Football halftimes were, for the Machine, a time of total concentration. Every little detail, being in step and being in the right place, is crucial. Senior, Alan Zieg, plays the xylophone as well as marching to the drum corp routine.

THE MANY, THE PROUD,

THE MACHINE

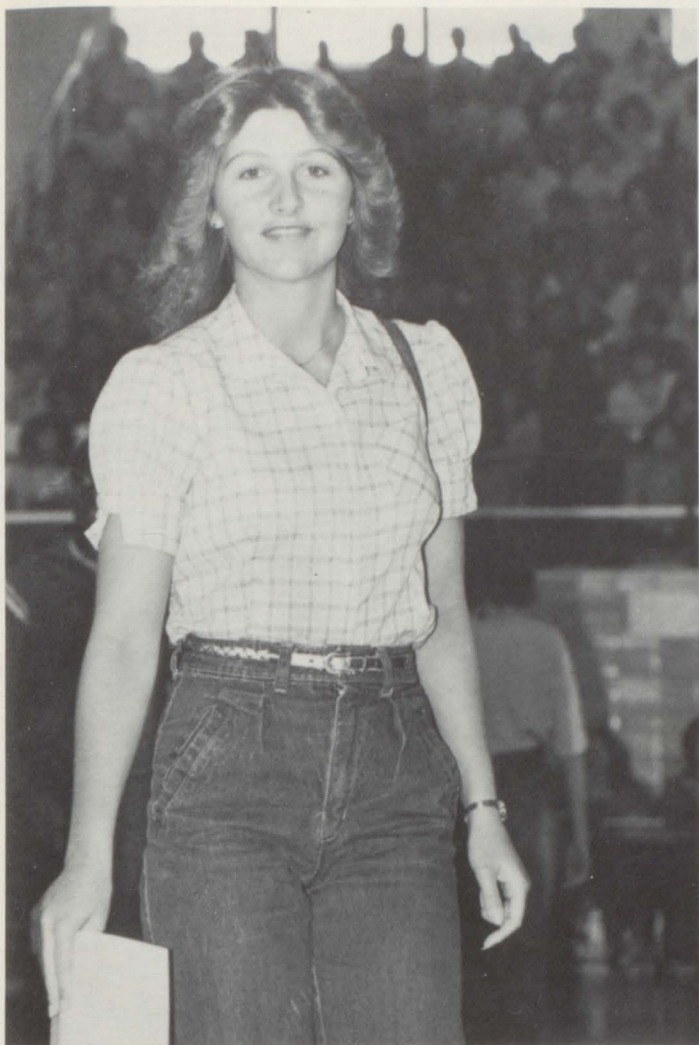

During Spirit Week, Big Reds get the chance to express themselves in their true colors. This is apparent as we see Punkers Angi Gross, Joe Andrews and Laura Oakes. And colorful they are!! To further our clowns of Spirit Week, Beth Hooper is pictured in the traditional dress of Toga Day. Finally Blues Brothers Tom Harris and Jay Hawley pause for a moment on their way to homeroom.

CLOWNS TO . . .

... SCHOLARS

Outstanding student Kristy Atkins approaches the stage to receive her award from Mr. Ufford our assistant principal. N.H.S. members at the Spring Honors Assembly: (Front Row)—Dave Myron, Stacie Mecum, Sue Nofs, Lori Mitchell, Julie O'Dell, Carole Owens, Judy Polechonski, Elisa Polovich, Wendy Price, Mary Rehberg, Toney Stewart, Mark Reilley, Karen Temple, and Renee Walsh. Scholarship, service, leadership and character are the four mottos exemplified by this year's fifty-six member National Honor Society. The membership consists of juniors and seniors in Port Huron High School. Unlike any other school organization, members are hand-picked by the faculty. With the guidance of Mr. Robert S. Verran, the N.H.S. is able to remain an active and responsible chapter. The function of the National Honor Society is to provide scholastic tutoring, participate in community services, and represent Port Huron High's leadership and excellence. Our National Honor Society, at Port Huron High, is unique in the "extra" activities they host. In December, an annual Christmas Tea is held. Personalized invitations are sent out to the faculty who are invited to drop in at any time. In the spring, local retail stores are represented at the annual Fashion Show. At the end of spring, new members are selected. New officers are selected, scholarships are awarded, and preparations for the new year begin. One feeling that each member will always have is a sense of enrichment, for each member leaves with the qualities of an honor student.

Year of the Pig 4681

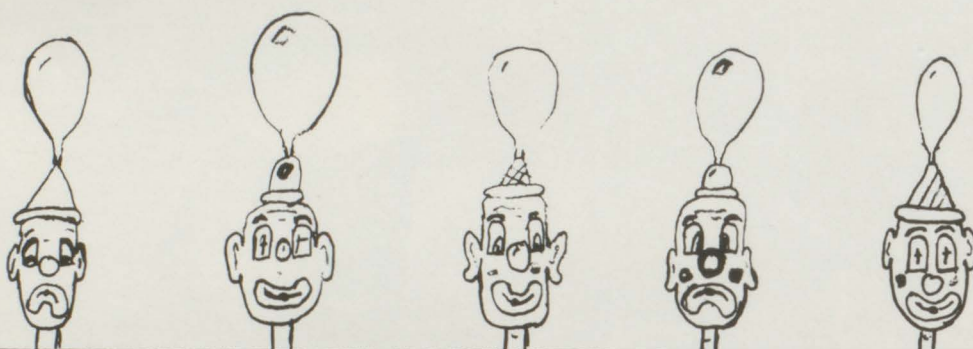

Master teacher, Miss Nolan's senior A.P. English class dresses up for the Chinese New Year. Spirited Chris Cameron shows she's proud of her class. Juniors like Chris have great spirit and good attitudes towards school and life.

Although Juniors are enjoying the transition from being underclassmen to upperclassmen, the year for Juniors is filled with mixed emotions. The moment that holds the happiest and saddest memories for the Junior class is when you see your Senior friends file out of the gym after the senior assembly. You realize then that you may never see most of them again. Then all of a sudden like magic it hits everyone, we're no longer Juniors, we have become Seniors.

NEWS FROM THE GRAPE VINE

Juniors, Andy Swoffer, Julie Staiger, Maryann Kruse and Donna Minock enjoy gossiping on their favorite bench. Of the 16 total waking hours in a day, at least six hours are spent gossiping. This includes before, during, and after school plus phone calls. Almost every student has a different way of communicating. Some people like Donna and Maryann, in the picture, just talk, talk, talk. While others like Julie, spend most of the day wondering what to say next. While still others, like Andy, are content just to ponder on the days events. Have you ever stopped to realize how much time you spend gossiping with your friends?

All Juniors at Port Huron High School are required to write a term paper in US History class. The paper is written about some aspect of American History. Jenny Andrzejewski and Michelle Lucas are in the fiction side of the library concentrating on finding information to help them finish their term papers.

SERIOUSLY . . . ?

Fashion leader, Mike Halamka and a concentrating Colleen Sweeney both prepare for important projects. Mike checks to be sure his makeup is perfect in a junior skit during the BRMM annual overnight party. The skit performances begin at about one o'clock in the morning when everybody is beginning to get the "night craze". Nearly 150 people were in a constant uproar while at least four or five people were up on stage trying to act out their part. Cat calls were heard everywhere from a boisterous crowd. On the serious side, Colleen is busy preparing her homework for Spanish class.

THE CLASS OF 85

Sophomores show their spirit in many different ways. Beth Hooper and Denise Nadeau march in the Blue Water Festival Parade. Aaron Hauenstein, Trish Bradbury, Jim Loxton, Ken Mullen, Anne Breidnich, Joe Rankin, Chase Comstock, and Bill Gilbert use their "pull" during Spirit Week. Unfortunately, they didn't use enough pull because they lost the tug-of-war to the Freshmen. The class of '85 will try again next year.

Thunderbirds, Kathy Mooney and Ken Mullen stop to talk at one of the many dances put on by the Student Council.

The 1982-83 Sophomore officers were Secretary, Kim Klebba; Vice President, Pam Baird; President, Leslie Bailey, and Treasurer, Becky Dudd. Mr. Harrison took over Mr. Stoner's job as class sponsor when Mr. Stoner moved out of the school district. These girls have done a spectacular job in student government.

Pondering, Rosalyn Scruggs works out an important problem on her exam. No doubt like most Sophomores she was successful.

During lunch, sophomores take full advantage of the extra time to talk or even to do homework for the afternoon's classes. Tina Sullivan laughs about the latest news and Pam Angerbrandt does some of her French homework. After finishing their lunch, Dean Kruger, Paul Rowse, and Jeff Willard discuss the upcoming exams, (something that is very important to sophomores). Most sophomores can't wait until they become seniors. Seniors with a "B" average or better are not required to take exams in that particular class. This year exams lasted an hour and a half.

J.V. Tennis player, Kelly Bauman takes a break between exams. Kelly is an active member of the sophomores class. She was President of the class last year, helped with many of the fund raising projects and worked with this year's class officers on the design of "Woodstock" the class of '85" float.

Sophomore, Cheryl Fye carefully studies for her upcoming exams. Blowing bubbles helps to relieve some of her nervousness.

Sophomore starting Varsity football players, Keith Schneider, Wendall Callahan, Rich Cunningham, Aaron Hauenstein, Joe Rankin, Chase Comstock, and Dave Palmer enjoy being the only sophomores on the team. Although they may have felt a little out of place at first, the upperclassmen made them feel welcome.

The Varsity Band was one of the bands featured in Bandtastic, held in the gym on Saturday, January 15, 1983. One of the many instruments in the band, here, the clarinet is skillfully played by Ruth Warren, Shirlene Boehm, and Cheryl Howell. Conducted by Mr. Payton, the band played Broadway Razzle Dazzle, Their Playing Our Song, and Ice Castles, and were greatly applauded by their audience.

When a teacher promises a five minute break between assignments, Keith is the first one to remind her. The rest of the class then remember the promise and also remind the teacher.

Kim Phillips eagerly awaits the bell to end the hour. Kim is, one member of the class of 85 who doesn't mind a little extra time without an assignment. She has no problem dealing with "break-time". Kim, like most sophomores carries a full academic schedule. Kim's courses include: English, Geometry, Science, World History, and Honors Band. Besides this, Kim is on the Majorettes twirling team and twirls for the Blue Waterettes. With her busy schedule and many activities, Kim's Sophomore year is a very busy one.

GOOD TIMES

Sophomores, Dave LaMonica, Bryan Durham, and Twitchell Green relax and listen to some music at lunch. Lunch is a time for all students to get together, goof off, and even study. Many just visit friends and discuss the day's events. Freshmen fear has given way to Sophomore confidence. Experiences in class and out have eliminated the awesome feeling of being lost in the gigantic environment of PHHS.

The sophomore class which was made up of over 490 students showed spirit and pride throughout the year. This class really captured the festival spirit at Port Huron High. Sophomore spirit livened up pep assemblies, sparked homecoming games, participated at the varsity level in major sports, and generated hope for better years to come.

MOVING UP

Smiling with Big Red pride are sophomores Cathleen Barringer, Peggy Williams, and Rick Velez. These Sophomores like the rest of their classmates are eagerly looking forward to the change from Sophomore to Junior. At the end of the Sophomore year next years Juniors must select courses designed to help them get more experience in their career fields. Good attitudes will enable this class to take on new issues and be successful in all they attempt. Communication skills gained in their 10th grade year will be further improved as they work towards solving the problems of tomorrow.

A FESTIVAL OF FASHIONS

Among the popular new fashions for the 82-83 school year is the minnie skirt. It is worn by the "Valley Girl", who may have been introduced to an unsuspecting world by the new hit song "Valley Girl". The song has brought about a unique way of speaking which is appropriately called "Valspeak" by some.

Some other popular clothing items are: legwarmers, which can be worn with "baggies", "knickers", designer jeans, or skirts. Bow ties in many sizes and shades have become popular with the girls. "Prairie" skirts and blouses are also popular with the girls, while T-shirts and sweatshirts bearing such logos as "Baby", "Harley Davidson", "I Love Rock 'N' Roll, and "Big Reds" are popular with guys and girls alike. Cowboy boots and deck shoes are popular fashions to be worn with just about anything. "Leathers", jackets that is, are quite popular with students, while leather pants seem to be more popular with singers in concert. Mirrored sunglasses as well as the trendy "punk" glasses are seen popping up on the eyes of quite a few students, while "Deely Boppers", those bobbing objects perched on top of springs to be worn on the head in a headband fashion seem to be reserved for "punks" and zany Halloween costumes. Fancy shoelaces, decorated with everything from rainbows to E.T., adorn the tennis shoes of many, from the freshmen to the seniors.

The Smurfs, Strawberry Shortcake, E.T., Annie, Garfield and PacMan have become widely popular and their characters appear on everything imaginable from sheets to clothes and shoelaces to toys and eating utensils.

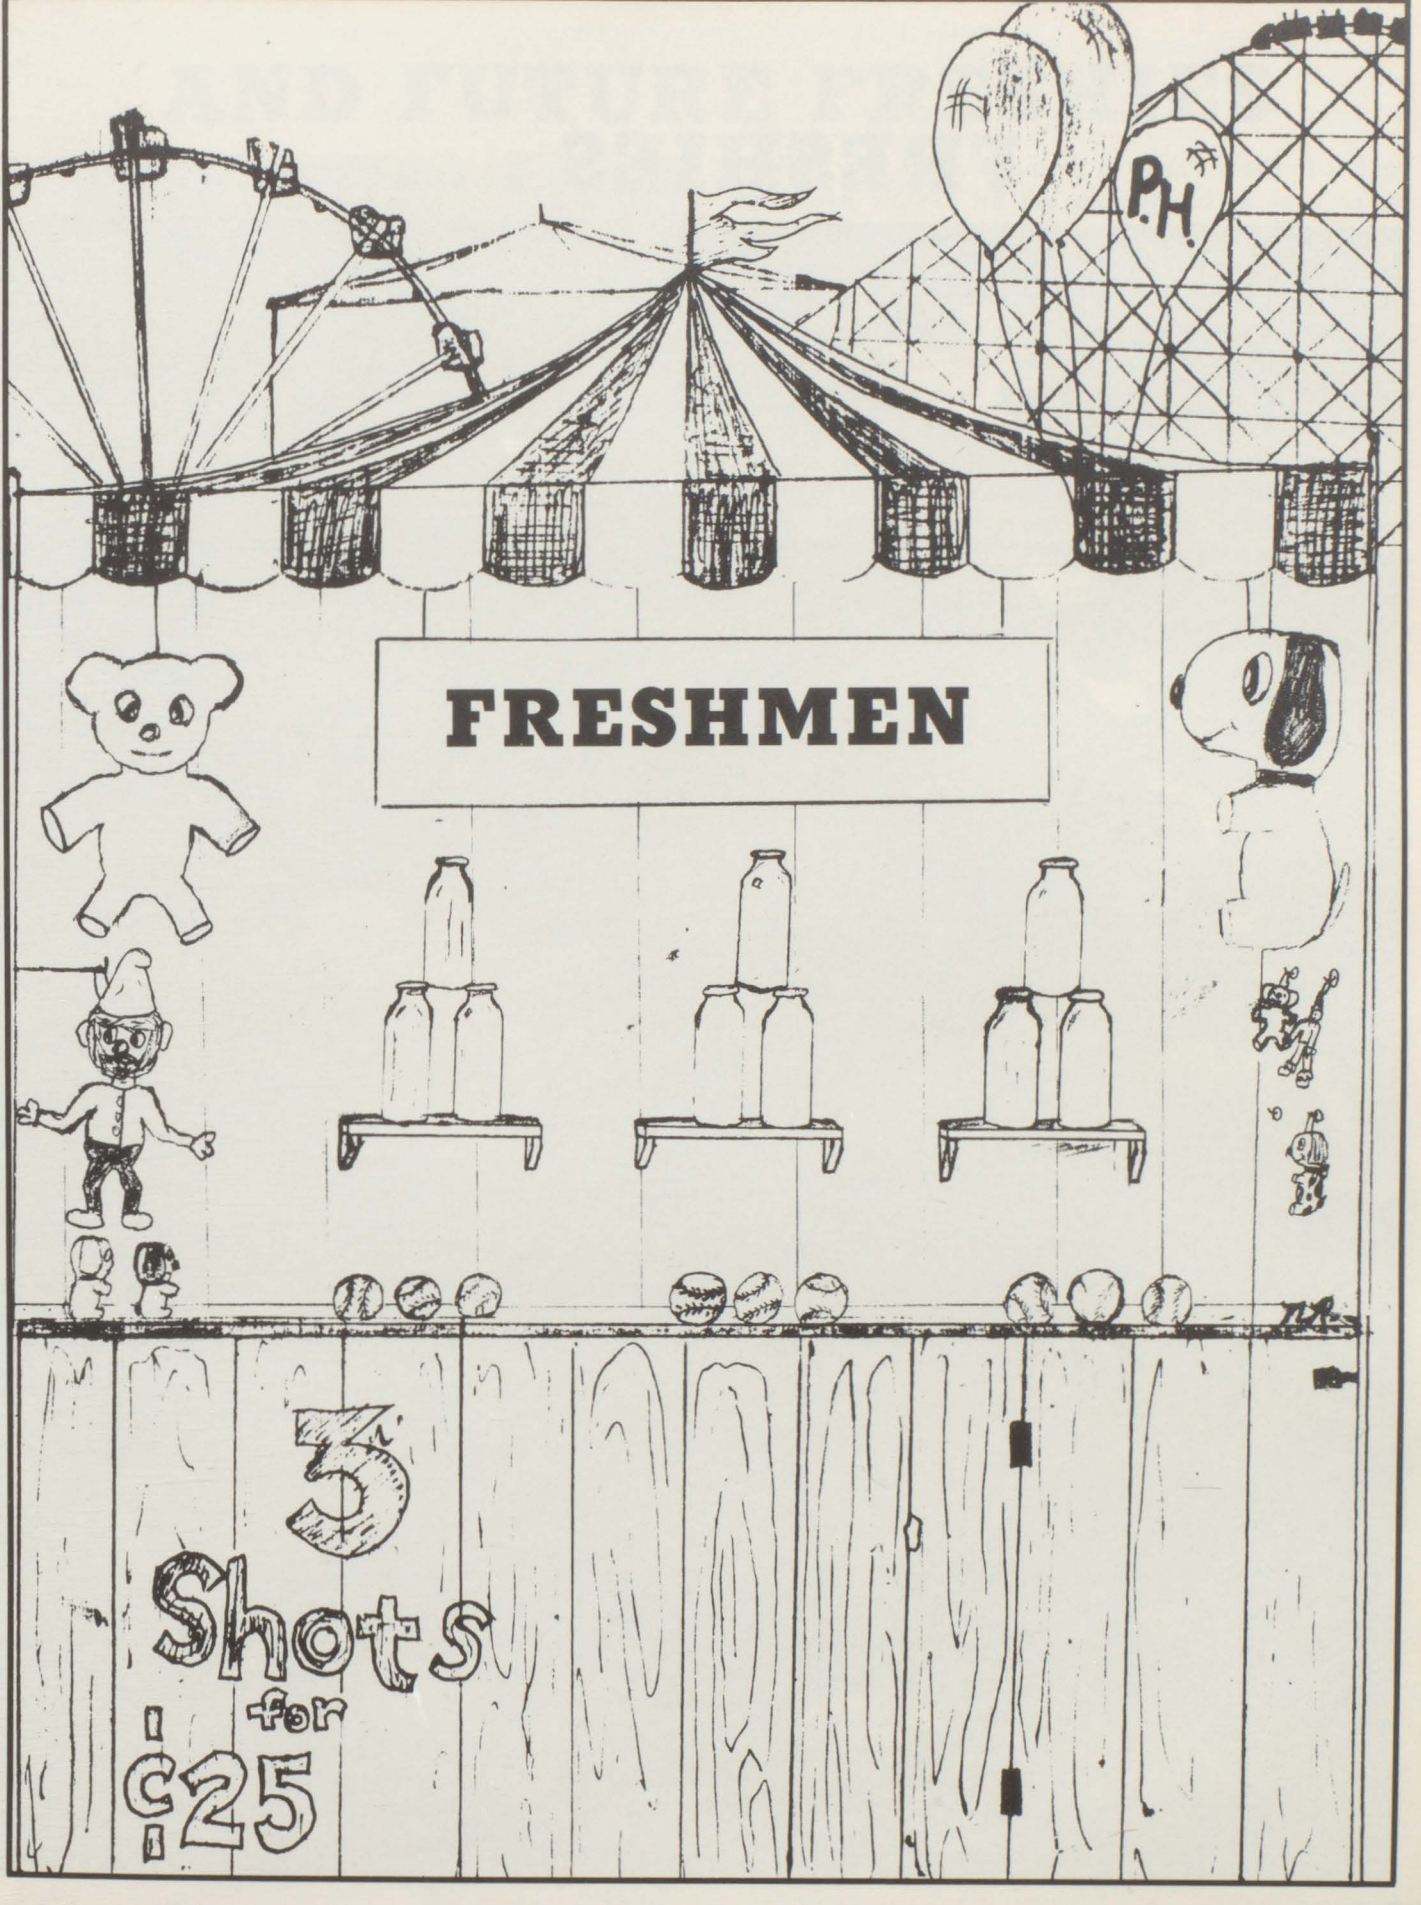

The Atari computer, along with many others have become extremely popular at home and on the job. They are used, not only for video games, but for drawing plans, testing theories, and doing experiments. Also, many arcades have popped up around Port Huron and are frequented by many students.

There are many new T.V. serials this season, as well as some old ones that are still widely viewed. Among them are: Dallas, Dynasty, Hill Street Blues, FAME, Knight Rider, and Square Pegs.

The "Artesians" with their amazing brewing qualities have eluded the eyes of men on the current T.V. commercial, while others return to "The Great White North" after a hard days work. No year would be complete without this list of memories.

Above are a sample of the many tennis shoes worn at P.H. Twins Carol and Cathy Miller model a typical outfit worn by students. Senior, Trina Gurnsey, wearing deely-boppers, mirrored sunglasses, a T-Shirt, and a leather, shows us some other popular clothing items.

This zany group, consisting of Vera Schultz, Frank Zepeczauer, Joe Andrews, Dennis Brown, Bethany Barth, and Trina Gurnsey, display an assortment of stylish fads.

FRESHIES . . .

AND FUTURE FRESHIES

When you think about it, it wasn't really that long ago when we ran for the playground as soon as recess started. Many of us were Little Reds. We looked up to any Big Red we knew. We admired them because they seemed so grown up and seemed to have so much fun. Now it's our turn, and we have become Big Reds. We found out that there are many responsibilities that go along with the fun. There is the agony of those first few days when you can't seem to find any of your classes. There are all the pressures of getting homework done, and experiencing exams for the first time. We learn spirit from the upperclassmen and how to act like Big Reds. It takes some time, but we soon get the hang of it and can really feel like we are Big Reds. One of the best parts is that now we are the ones that the Little Reds look up to.

Last night I had a dream
That the moon wasn't really there.
Think of it now, as hard as it seems,
That dream and reality are hard to compare,
Suppose that each day were a dream,
And every sense an illusion.
To hear, touch, smell, taste and see,
Were only drempt thoughts of confusion.
But where would reality enter?
Where would our life begin?
You wouldn't really be in love.
You wouldn't lose, you wouldn't win.
So wake up and face the day.
With all it's ups and downs.
Separate that fictitious vision,
From the reality that surrounds.

No matter what the weatherman brought, nothing stopped the fans from showing up to support our Freshmen team. Proud parents and other fans have their eyes glued to our fabulous Freshman football players as they work for victory.

Calisthenics is a vital part of the typical freshmen gym class. After 15 to 20 minutes of warm-up exercises, freshmen play assorted indoor and outdoor sports such as basketball, soccer, and softball. This is all done to accomplish a better physical awareness.

Freshman Jeff Baker works diligently to complete his exam in the hour and a half time limit. This year, as always, Freshmen did not know what exams held in store for them. Everyone breathed a sigh of relief at 11:45 after their last exam. Finally, the nightmare was over. Many went to the "Thank Goodness It's Finished" dance held by Student Council. It helped release the tension of the past week. Everyone danced, talked, and just had a great time. The best part was the three day week-end!

A JOB THAT MUST BE DONE

Mr. Richards points out a few of our school rules to Keith Collins. Sometimes freshmen have trouble getting use to high school rules. However principals and staff help freshmen mature into young men and women, and prepare them for the outside world.

Mr. Richards, Mr. Lyzak, and Mr. Ufford, our assistant principals keep our school organized. Mr. Epply, attendance counselor, is a big help to the school. He maintains records for truancy, yearly attendance, and daily attendance for the whole school, but especially for the freshmen to make sure they graduate.

MOVING ON

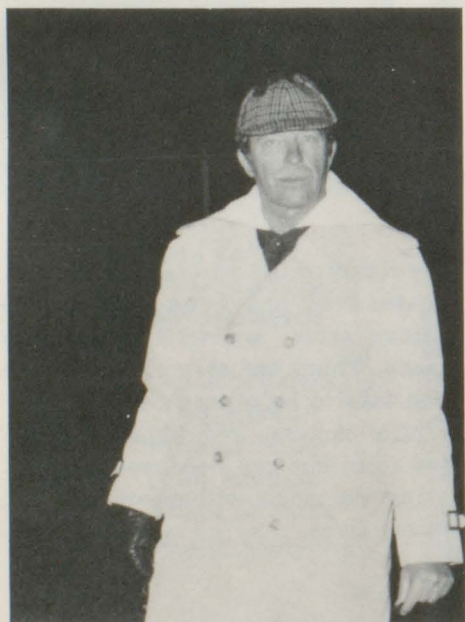

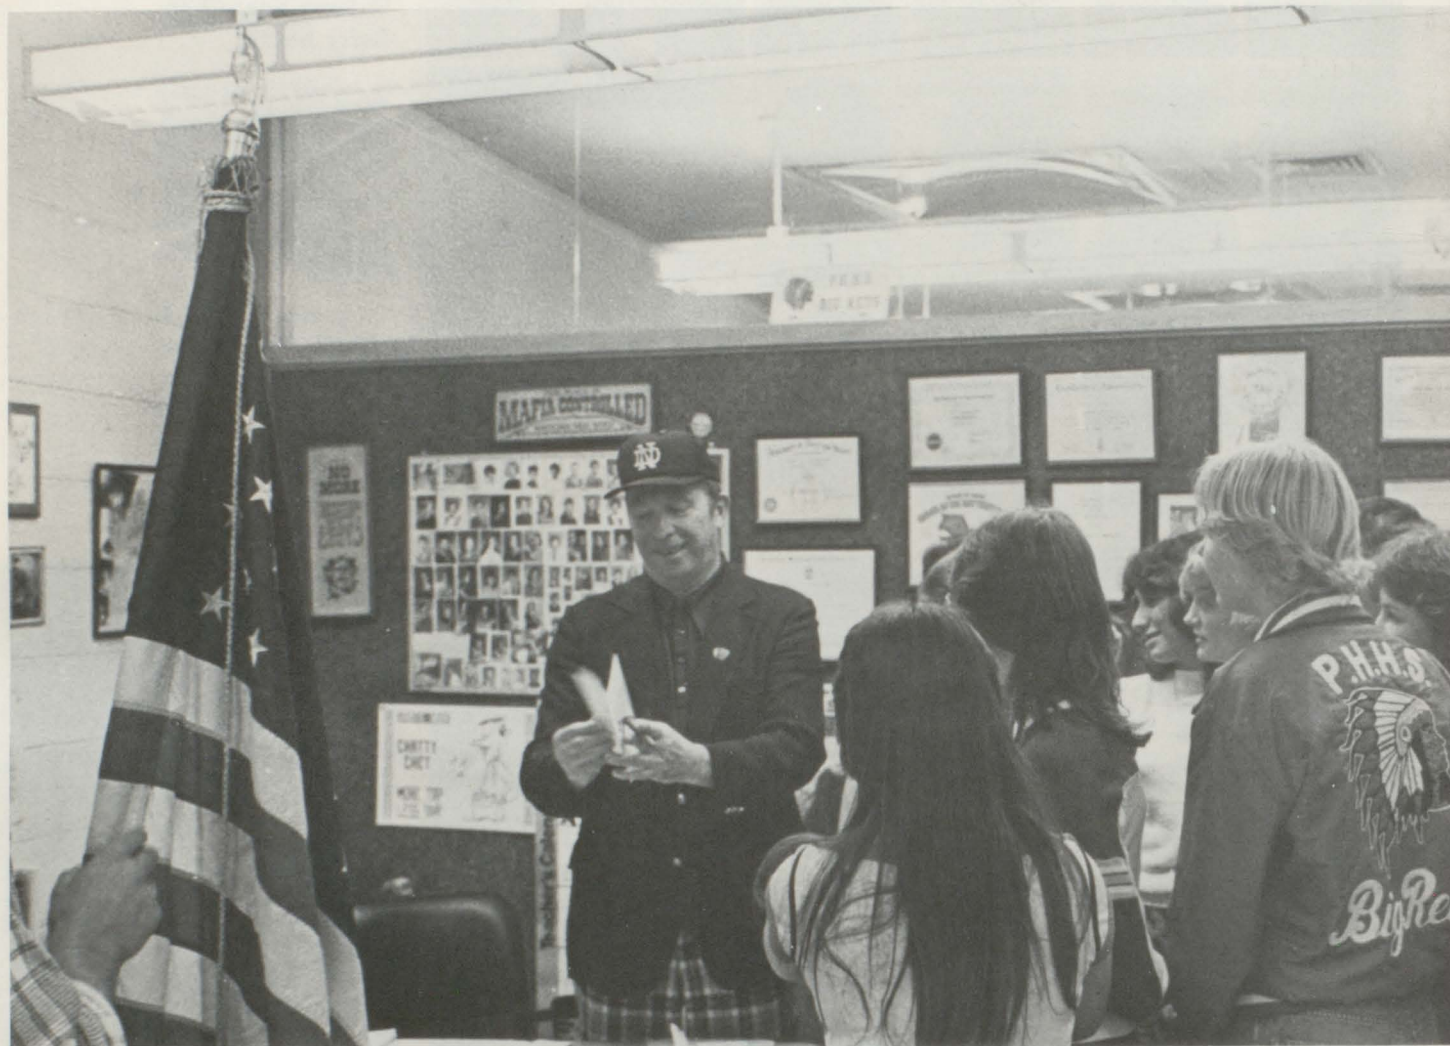

Determined Keith Collins and Penny Lepine are busily trying to complete their exams which marks the end of our Freshmen year. We learned what it is like to become high school students and will always remember what it was like to be Freshmen. There were many good memories that we will hold forever in our hearts.

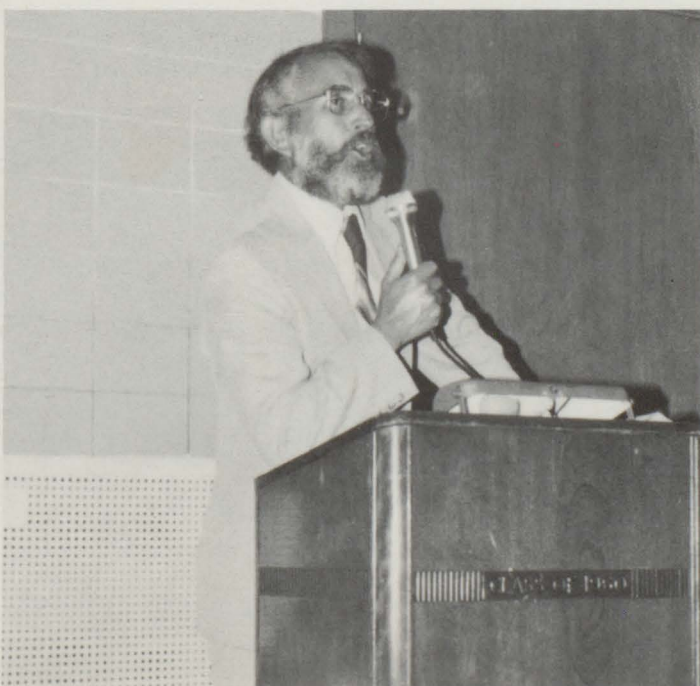

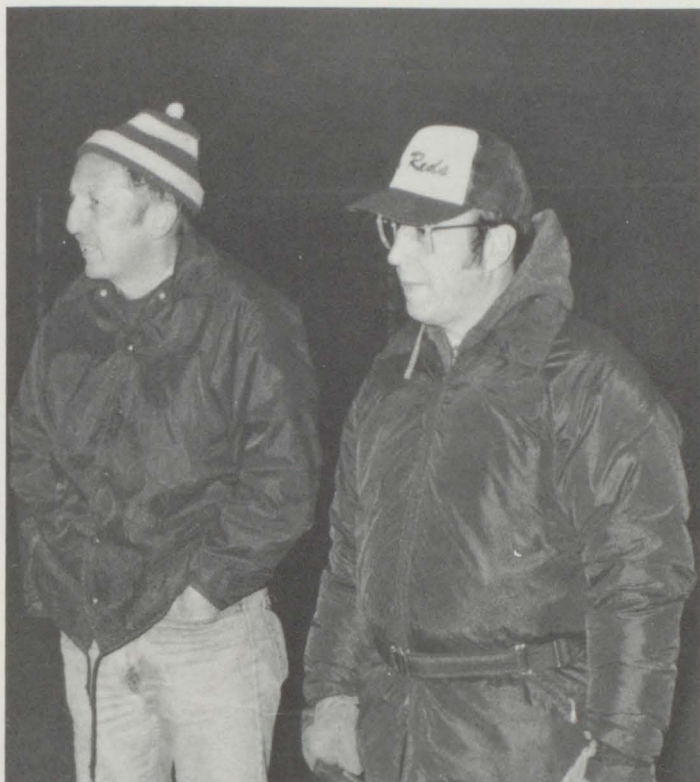

Now that our Freshmen year is finished it is time for us to move on. It is now our turn to become Sophomores and we will no longer be referred to as little Freshmen. As young adults, our goals are bigger and we will do our best to accomplish them.

We are looking forward to our Sophomore year because there will be many changes taking place. Instead of only one elective to chose from, we will now have many. There are several classes we can take to help prepare us for our future careers. We hope to make the right choices because the decisions we make will effect the rest of our lives.

PROVIDING OPPORTUNITIES FOR BIG REDS

Look around you, at every function, who do you see? Who is there every day, insuring the best for all? Who wears red and white every single "color day?" Look again . . . who's the first man you see at Freshmen orientation and the last one at Senior commencement? Our biggest fan and supporter is Chester Wydrzynski as Port Huron High's principal, this man is involved in everything. He is the moving force behind all that is red and white. Each morning is approached with the attitude of " . . . do what has to be done." The feeling of smooth efficiency and organization is felt throughout each day. He is a no-nonsense person when things should be done. This also includes the students social and extra-curricular activities. Mr. Wydrzynski is concerned about students. His goal, reflected in the faculty, is to . . . "give kids opportunities to: one, prepare for further education and two, prepare them for a job."

"We involve people in our building." Everyone is welcome to join and participate. "Most students don't remember their math grade, but they do remember that parade in band or a football game, or a concert." The school is not only set aside for learning but to give students something to do, something to live for.

"A pass, for me? Great! Who's is from? Oh . . . Mr. Lyszak."

"Who wants to talk to me, Mr. Ufford?"

"Oh no, why does Mr. Richards want to speak with me? I didn't do anything."

A general reluctance to see any of our assistant principals is common amongst the 2100 students at Port Huron High. Why is this? Is it because of their outstanding loyalty to Big Reds. Maybe it's their habit of being at every function for every school or organization. Or maybe it's their constant invitations to help or assist us when we need the guidance. No, it is that they love their jobs and they love us. They are Big Reds.

SPARKLING CLEAN— CUSTODIANS WORK HARD

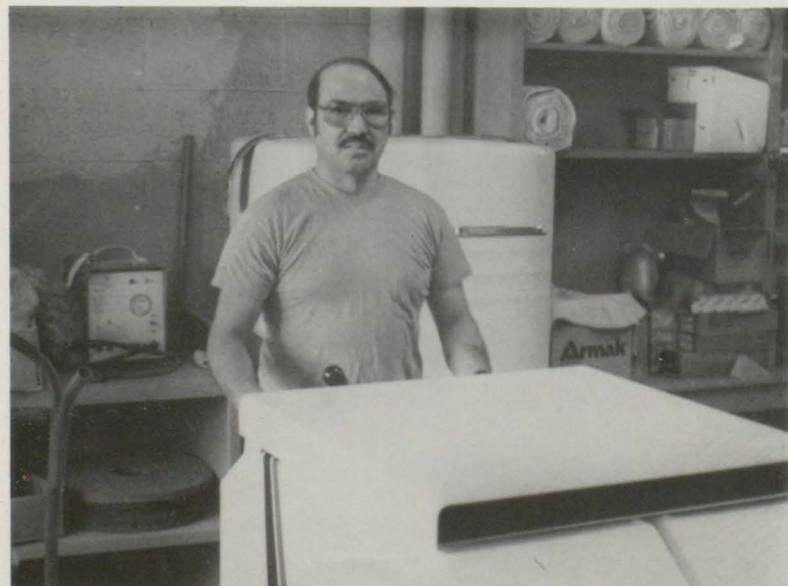

Custodians clean the daily debris from students and teachers, maintain the building and grounds, and do preventive maintenance and repair work.

This year the head custodian is William Wolvin who replaces last year's retired head custodian Alex Dortman. The students and staff of Port Huron High hope that Mr. Wolvin can maintain the high standards set by Mr. Dortman, our retired head custodian.

The custodians' main job is to keep the halls and rooms clean before and after school. In addition, the custodians clean up the lunchrooms and football stadium, sweep the floors after basketball games and dances, and work to keep the school clean for everyday events.

We appreciate the work of the custodians.

Music, relaxation and eating is what goes on Monday, thru Friday in the cafeteria. You have a choice of hot and cold lunch which consists of pizza, spaghetti, turkey, macaroni and cheese, salad, sandwiches, jello and yogurt. The cost for the main lunch is a $1.25 and milk is .15 ¢. The every day menu is items like cheese burgers, hot dogs, corn dogs, fish, sloppy joes, cookies, cinnamon rolls and pudding. The lunch hour is divided into three intervals that last 25 minutes each. The food is prepared and served by women like Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Sweeney. The clean cafeteria is kept up by the custodians.

Secretaries and Aides at Port Huron High School do more jobs than we would expect. Their jobs vary from attendance, paying school bills, transferring telephone calls, and much more. Teachers and students really appreciate their accurate work.

Mrs. Emlaw's job as secretary to assistant Principals is not an easy job. She has to deal with phoning parents, student excuses, and various other tasks. Through all this, she says she enjoys her job and wouldn't leave for anything. Working 21 years in the same building proves that. Keep up the good work, Mrs. Emlaw!

The women in the office are one big happy family, as Mrs. Gostinger staff secretary and Mrs. Bowman principal's secretary show in this picture.

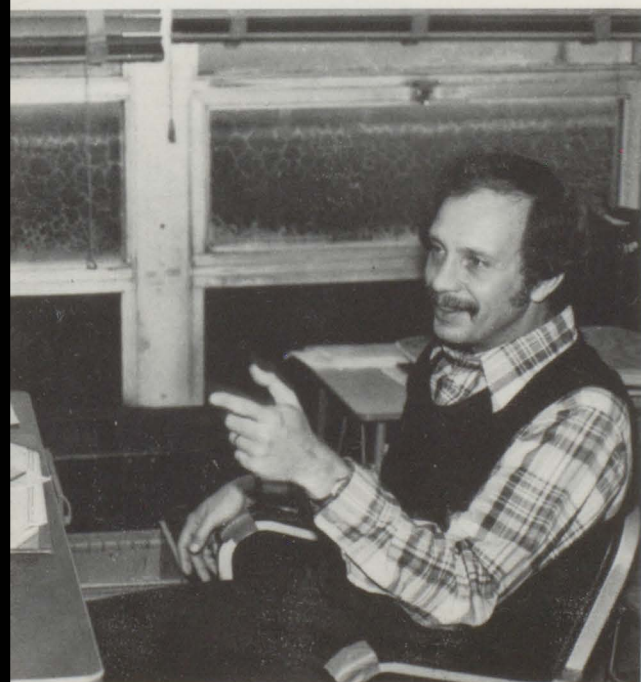

Port Huron High Schools six counselors meet with students to help them plan for the future. The counselors assist in academic, vocational, educational, personal, and social adjustment needs of students. They consult with teachers and parents regarding the students needs and recommend schedule changes when in the best interest of the student. Our counselors offer advice to students concerning which college to attend. They handle scholarship applications, SAT, and ACT Tests scores. The counselors run the Resource Center Room. They have made it possible for students to use the computers to play educational games, use the MOIS system to investigate careers, and seek information about colleges and military programs.

Junior Debbie Sickles is assisted by Mrs. Wheatley in scheduling for second semester. Junior Kim Goulding is helped by Mrs. Bailey in arranging her schedule for second semester. Mr. Eppley is in charge of attendance.

PARLÉZ-VOUS FRANCAIS? ¡POR SUPUESTO!

TRAVAIL FAIT À LA MAISON

Do you speak French? Of course! With over 2,000 in P.H.H.S., Foreign Language classes are just barely holding on. Only five language classes remain. They consist of French, Spanish, and Bi-Lingual. Foreign Language classes are held so that students may learn other languages with which to communicate. The students and teachers of these classes like the idea of understanding a second language. They feel it makes them look beyond the borders of their own country. The classes are planning a trip to Europe in the summer.

Enter into the world of Poe, Homer, Frost, and Hemmingway. Explore the fascination of playing with words and phrases, creating a fantasy world of your own. Learn how to develop the art of communication.

All this and more is offered by the Port Huron High English Department. Richard Chapman, Department Chairman, foreshadows future expectations. "Our goal is to incorporate courses in English to suit the interests, abilities, and needs of students." The faculty is striving to bring out the best in each student. Courses offered are aimed at capturing potential student's interests and giving them a rounded, adaptable education.

The focus of the English Dept. is not to pound rules and literary names into masses of minds, but to imprint upon the individual person, the significance of literature and the art of communicating with the world around us. Come forward, and step into one of the most unique facets of learning; self-expression.

ADD IT UP

When you enter a math class you see many students brainstorming proofs, calculating algebraic expressions and formulas, problems solving, or just figuring basic mathematics. If you asked the average student in a math class if he or she enjoys the class they would probably deny it. But really, once they get started, it usually hypnotizes them, and they can't wait for the next challenge of figuring out another problem.

John Grygorcewicz, Ken Paeth, Jim Harris, and Shari Burgess rack their brains in their General Math Classes. Although the work is hard, Leslie Bailey and Mary Docherty don't seem to mind.

Are you looking for a job? Are you skilled? Quite often, the response to the first question is a definite "yes!" Unfortunately, the answer to the next question is more often "no" to an eager and confident "yes." By enrolling oneself in the Business Education program as quickly as possible, a successful background in skilled work will definitely highlight any resume.

The biggest and perhaps best "grade" that Industrial Ed. gives to any student, according to Mr. Floyd Belt Department Chairman of the Ind. Ed. Dept. is that, "... even in a recession through our co-op efforts, we place students in jobs because they have a skill that they can sell." The faculty teaches students how to, "learn by doing." By concentrating on bringing out marketable skills, students benefit throughout life thus helping themselves along with the working world.

Everybody can get involved and realize their great potential. That is what a student can expect from the physical education department. The goal, according to Ken Semelsberger, Department Chairman, is to nurture "total physical and mental development."

The athletic program was not created only for physical improvement. It was set up in hopes that a student would learn leadership, leisure skills, teamwork and the true meaning of self-achievement. Involving oneself in the physical education program is one of the first steps students should take in providing themselves with a well-rounded education. It would be to the benefit of the student to regard phys. ed. not as an "extra-curricular one, but as a co-curricular one."

Bringing Us Together

Our school offers a special education program involving 14 classroom teachers which help students with learning disabilities, emotional, and physical impairments.

One student, Belle Beauvais, is non-verbal, and has cerebral palsy which affects the muscles that allow her to walk and talk. Here she is shown using the engraving machine with Tim Bochatyn and Dale Puckett.

The 14 classrooms have had several fund raising activities this year including dinner-dances, raffles and garage sales. Name plates and name tags you see around the building are made on one engraving machine by the POHI program. Special Ed classes are also involved in a Junior Achievement company—United Students. Together the classes join hands in raising money for a $16,000 computer communication device. The effort they put forth in this goal proves to us all how worthwhile the Special Education program really is.

Throughout the school year social studies classes have the opportunity to hear guest speakers. This year Representative Dave Bonior, local attorneys, funeral directors, accountants, and many other speakers made presentations at Port Huron High. Freshman John Davis, Mike Cribbs, Mike Dean, and Rob Eichorn take chairs to the library on the days we have guest speakers. Our library is used as the central auditorium of our school.

Civics teacher, Keith Hodge discusses the anatomy of a stapler with Lagina Moncrief.

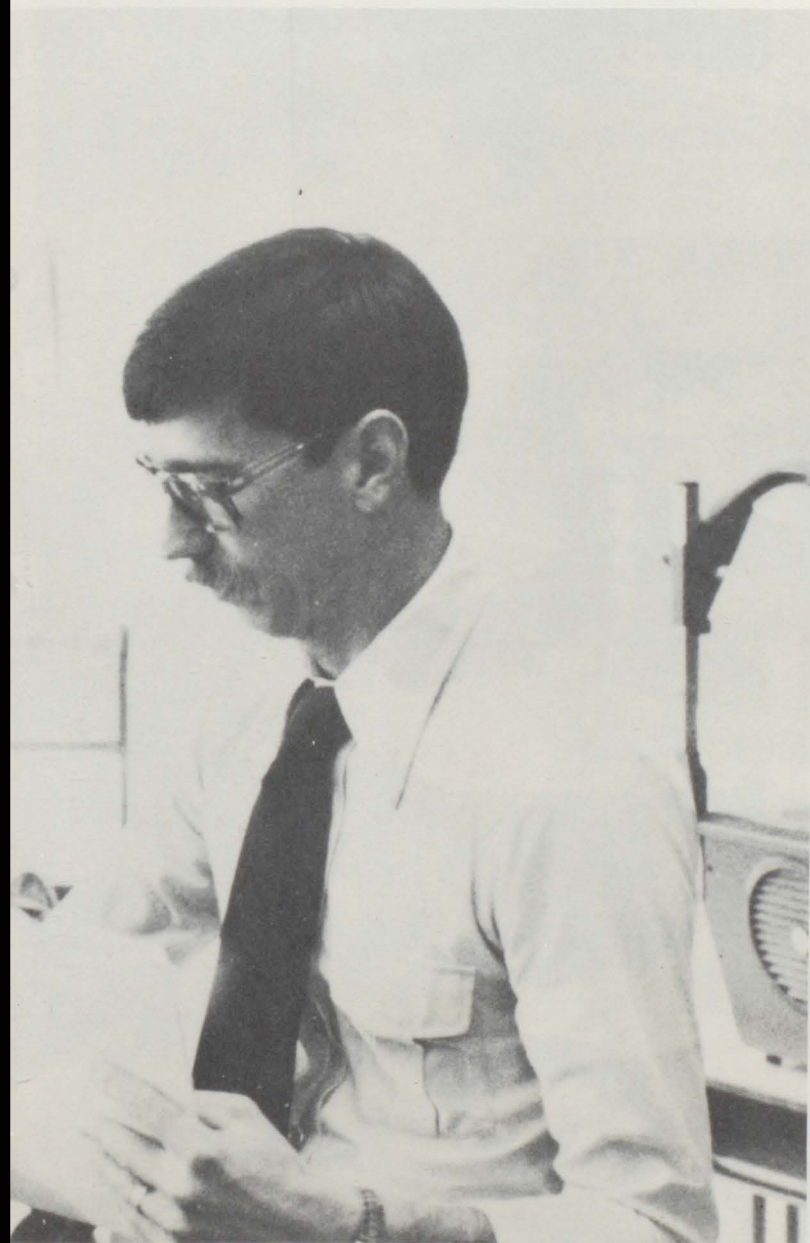

The Social Studies Department is designed with the students and their futures in mind. The program is a balanced one ranging from History, to Current Events and P.O.D. the study of today, to Futuristics the study of tomorrow.

The Social Studies Department uses Inquiring and Problem Solving methods where teachers and students are leaving the books more, and exploring the mind.

Looking ahead Mr. Lutz would like to see students, "Working more on theories and the projection of ideas, instead of facts. Students should use more of their imagination."

Senior P.O.D. teacher Mr. Vandenberg, when asked his advice for underclassmen said, "Study hard, learn everything you can because now it is free, after you get out of high school you pay for it either in time, or money, or both."

Junior U.S. History teacher Mr. Harrison, when asked what advice he would like to give to students stated, "Try to develop a more positive attitude, you can not run away from yourself, and what you learn in school will benefit you in your future life."

Home Crafts

"I feel that everybody should have some sort of Home Economics program," stated Mrs. Cameron.

This year the Home Economics classes are building their Money Management program, and drawing more interest on Family Living and Child Development.

"Students are really surprised at how much they learn and how fun it is."

CREATIVITY IN ACTION

Art classes are a major and important part of our curriculum—"A lot of people discover that art is the only way to express their deepest feelings," said eleventh grader Mark Stover. Many students enter with plans of continuing on to an art career, such as Mark, who plans to get into designing. Students study Picasso, Van Gogh, and Miro, while painting, drawing, designing, advertising and printing. Sculpturing and working with ceramics seem to be popular assignments.

"There are so many interested students," said Mrs. McPharlin. "I wish I had the opportunity to work with them all on a one to one basis."

Dr. Dougherty heads the Fine Arts department which also includes band and vocal music. Other areas included in Fine Arts are Cadet, Varsity, and Honors Band, plus the Chorale, Festival, and Solo Ensemble Choirs.

Senior Dave Felchack uses his creativity to produce a sculpture of Mr. Wydrzynski. Seniors Diane Chartier and Wayne Webster are trying to decide what to do with the clown that they are laughing about. Senior Roxanne Laming roles out a coil to begin her project for ceramics.

MEDIA IS THE CENTER

The media center is where students go to gain knowledge on a subject that is touched upon in class. The library is also where teachers get those exciting film strips and movies that are shown in our classes. Mrs. Anderson is in charge of the placement of books, papers, and magazines. She also keeps them in an orderly manner so students can find what they are looking for. Mr. Domke controls A-V equipment and materials. Both librarians work with staff and students to make our media center a good learning environment.

(1) Students Sarah Moutoux, Jeff Villerot, Julie Staiger, Debbie Sickles, and Brian Reilly, are busy trying to finish their work so they won't have to take it home with them. (2) Bryan Lyon attempts to find a book so he can start working on his paper. (3) Doug Jones is searching through reference books in an attempt to find information about his research topic. (4) NHS sponsor Mr. Verran consults with librarians Mrs. Anderson and Mr. Domke.

ART CLUB HAS FLAIR

The Art Club is for anyone interested in art. Students can come in and work on a variety of different things, from pencil drawing to acrylic painting. Members of the 1983 Art Club were: Jayne Hallay, Mike Trapp, Marcia Ruff, Laura Nelson, Bonnie Harvey and Sally Barrett. Not pictured but active members were Kathy Sweeney, Brenda Brookins, and Anthony Dupree.

TWIRLERS

Rifle Drill-Team has been a part of the Big Red Marching Machine since last year and now has 13 new members in two units, Rifle Drill Team and Color Guard. They alternate doing Color Guard and will be Marching with the rest of the Machine in Florida during the Spring break. Rifle Drill Team Members are: Dennis Brown, Wally Long, Dave Evans, Steve Scandalito, Andy Bennett, Tom Campbell, Mike Herber, Matt Prater, John Lashbrook, Mike Butler, Gary Farro, Chuck Williamson, and Jim Randolph.

READY AIM . . .

The Majorettes who were formed in 1935 have always been a part of the Big Red Marching Machine. They have always performed at many school activities such as Open House, Bandtastic, and half-time shows. There are five girls on the team. Capt. Colleen Johnson, Kelly Dawson, Shelley Lisee, Kim Phillips, and Sheryl Hutchinson. The Majorettes hope to continue their outstanding performance level for Port Huron High School and our community.

READY FOR ACTION

Much time and work is put into making and learning routines but the Display Flag members have a lot to be proud of. Display Flag members are, back row, left to right: Kim Holzberger, Gaye Bachman, Kim Mercurio, Vicki Stockwell, Cheryl Holzberger, Janette McIntyre, and Beth Donachy. Third row: Diane Blake, Gloria Torres, Stacy

T-BIRDS

The Thunderbirds dance to the beat of the band. Coordination and timing are some of their many attributes. The Thunderbirds, through the year must learn many routines to all the songs the band plays. Knowing when to turn your head, kick your feet, or bounce on your knees is important. One mistake will stand out in any performance. The team consists of 25 members who must be and are dedicated to their work. This years members are, (back row) Becky Parker (wardrobe mistress), Wendy Wert, Shelley Randall, Lisa Brookins, Leanne Brown, Kim Klebba, Darcy Watson, Shelly Davis, Stacey Reynolds, Lynn Strobbe (sponsor), Kathy Mooney, Kris Atkins, Brenda Brookins, Kim Winchester, Tammy Harvey, Kathy Cheney, Cathy Ballard, Julie Fenner, & Becky Dudd (wardrobe mistress). (Middle Row) Julie Stone (Social chairman), Audrey Wert (capt) Colleen Mullins (historian). (Front row) Lois Dobring (secretary), Renee Pickett (little red princess & mascot) & Andria Moore (asst. capt.)

TOM A HAWKS

This year's performances and routines show that the Tom-A-Hawks demand people to stand up and take notice. Steady and extensive practice has proven effective in successful performances for this amazingly progressive group. The team is under the direction of Captain—Mary Jo Booth and Co-captain—Lula Shepard. The members pictured are (Bottom Row) Diane King, Janice Dewey, Angela Ganhs, Karen Thomas, Bethany Barth. (Front Row) Co-captain—Mary Jo Booth, Treasurer—Kim Mordan, Secretary—Jill Henry, not pictured mascot Tricia Frasier and sponser Lynn Frasier.

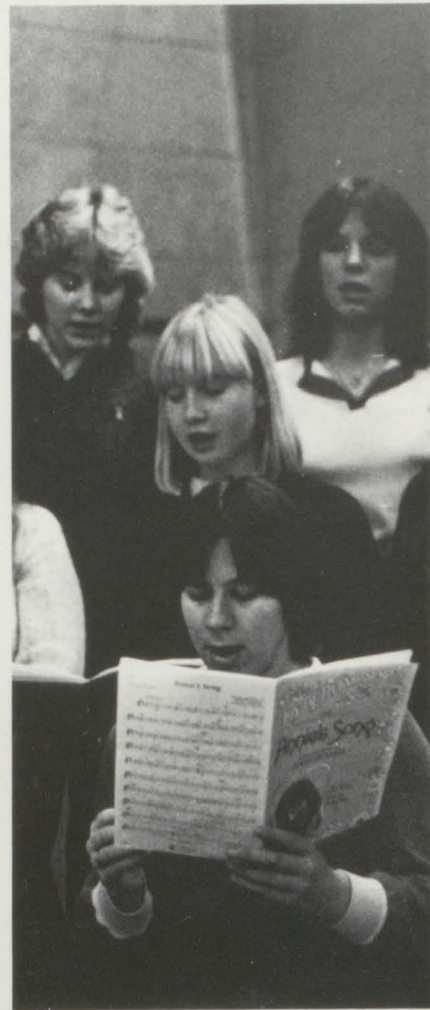

This year there were three choir classes: Festival Choir, Chorale, and Solo & Ensemble.

The teacher, Marci Culver, worked at P.H.H.S. in the morning and at P.H.N.H.S. in the afternoon. This was the first time in many years that the music teacher taught at two schools. The Choirs from both schools learned to work with each other. Together they worked at selling homemade apple pies in late October and early November, and at their combined Spring Concert at McMorran Auditorium Friday, May 13, 1983.

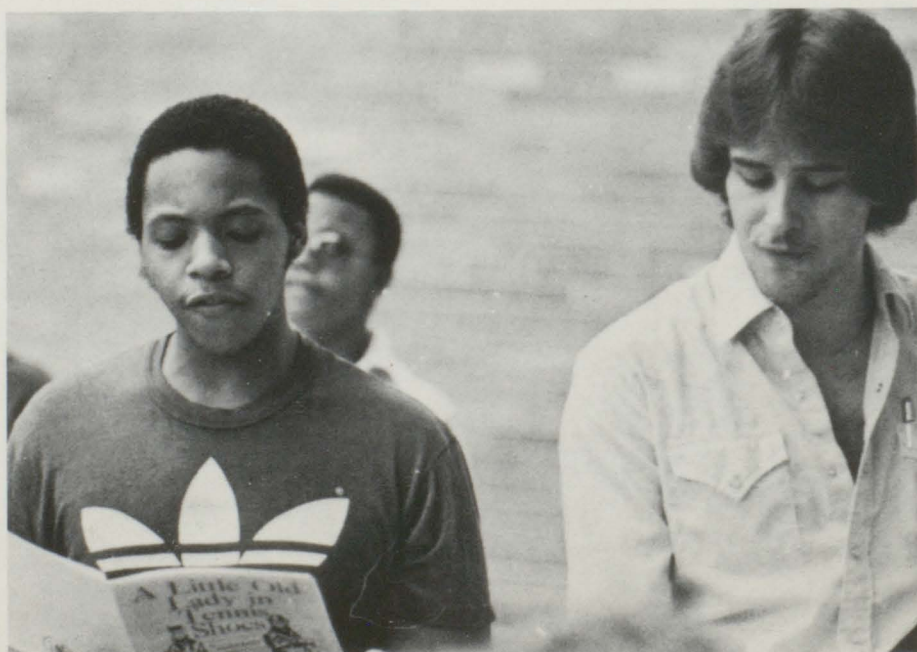

1. Third year choir teacher Marci Culver puts forth a lot of energy when she directs her choir students. She does this three times here at P.H.H.S. in the morning, and twice in the afternoon at Northern. Mrs. Culver says its "very challenging. There's almost three times the work". When asked what she enjoyed the most about teaching, she replied "kids & working together to produce beautiful sounds".

2. Altos Rachelle Russel, Tawnya Fountaine, Marika Simonsson, and Theresa Clark work together in blending their voices while singing "Annie's Song" in the Festival Choir. Foreign exchange student Marika Simonsson enjoys choir class because in Sweden, there is no choir class. "Its a voluntary choir that usually practices during lunch—or other hours once a week." says Marika. When asked what she likes most about the choir, she replied, "That people who like to sing can have fun and work together."

3. Choir pianist Wayne Horvath has been playing piano for 13 years and likes to play "everything except opera and country." 4. Basses James Thomason, Brian Cline, and Orlando Williams provide sound depth to the choir.

"The Varsity Cheerleaders create enthusiasm, spirit, and a positive atmosphere at athletic events," says assistant Varsity Coach Mr. Semelsberger.

One of the most active groups at Port Huron High School the Varsity Cheerleaders are captained by Teresa Shank, and Lena Scheffler. This Years squad directed by Mrs. Lynn Secory, Mrs. Betty Bowman and assisted by Mrs. Nel McLeod performed at Regional and Grand National competition, the Detroit Pistons Cheerleading Competition, Varsity Football and Basketball games, and "Marching Machine" activities.

Due to the failure of millages cheerleading, like all other sports, was funded by the the Port Huron Athletic Association this year. With the support of PHAA this year the cheerleaders received new uniforms.

Freshman Tracy Winkle overwhelmed by the cheerleaders, says, "They're so spirited it's contagious!"

Demonstrating the "hello" mount, Varsity Cheerleaders show their enthusiasm!

J.V. Cheerleading is the 2nd rung on the ladder to Varsity. Sophomore Benita Melton, when asked why she was a J.V. Cheerleader answered, "Because being a cheerleader is awesome totally awesome. Also because I wanted to show that I have spirit in PHHS and the best way to do that is through cheerleading. Captain Maureen Koob stated, "J.V. Cheerleading gets me involved in student activities and the sports program."

J. V. SPIRIT MAKERS

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders otherwise know as the J.V. Spirit Makers for the 82-83 school year are, (back) Mrs. McLeod (sponsor), Sherry Genaw, Petra Dickerson (captain) Amy Magbanua, Benita Melton, Pam Baird, Leslie Bailey, Maureen Koob (captain), Beth Hooper and Denise Nadeau.

Freshman cheerleaders selected for the 1983 school year are (Top Row) Lisa Bayes, Jeanette Kulka, Alyn Purvis, and Angie King. (Bottom Row) Connie Thiele, Jean Walker, Tina Genaw, and Captain Tammy Herron.

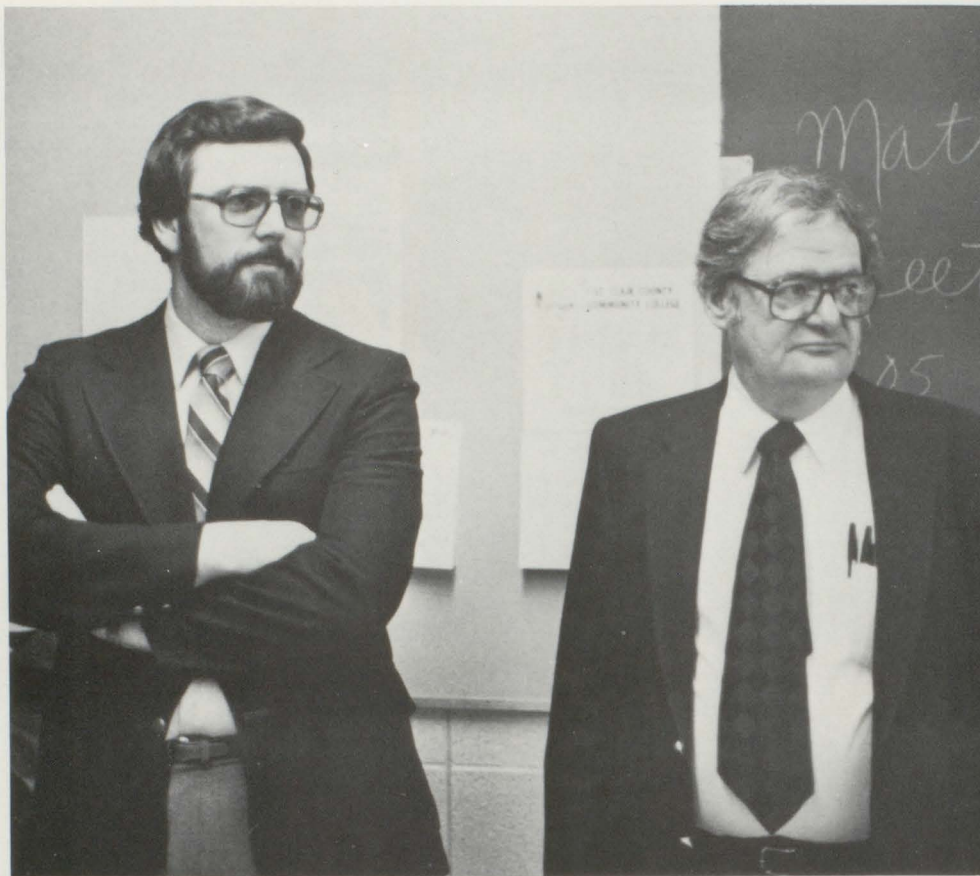

This years squad demonstrates their "Say Hello" cheer which is a basic mount. This cheer will prepare them for tougher manuevers and competition in the near future.

MATH'S WHIZ KIDS

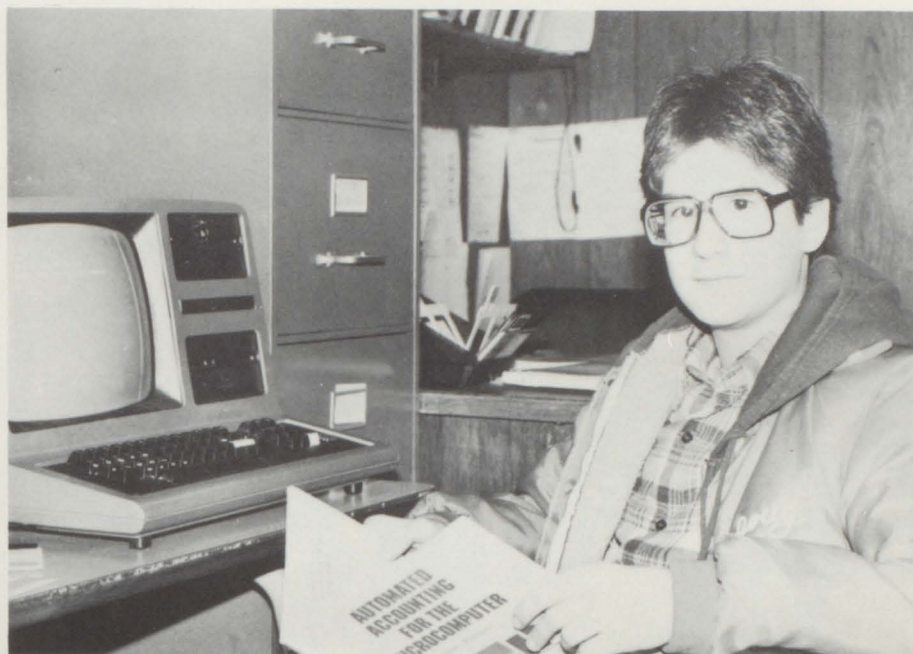

The math club is an honorary organization composed of the best mathematicians at P.H.H.S. Requirements for math club are three semesters of college prep Algebra, two semesters of Geometry, a "B" average in math and a "B" average over-all. This year, Mr. Spring joined Mr. Case as co-advisor. Officers for 1983 were Francis Miller, Kurt Hinkley, Ellen Hartwig, Alan Zieg, and Bonnie Miller.

FUTURE HITS P.H.

"Computers are the future" is what many people seem to be saying these days and Computer's influence has finally reached Port Huron High. One major problem was how expensive computers and their accessories can be. With Port Huron Area School District's funds running low, the computer club looked toward numerous fund raisers. Donut sales, the spaghetti dinner, and door-to-door sales items are just an example. Leading the way were President, Jim Gilbert; Vice President, Dan Gockenbach; Secretary, Kaye Foor; and Treasurer, Doug Dazer. Also helping tremendously were the advisors Mr. Ask and Mrs. Rutkofske.

OUI/SI CLUB

The Oui/Si Foreign Language Club consisted of French and Spanish students: Back Row: Ellen Kieser, Liz White, Becki Moore, Rena Donahue, Jeannette Feidler, Julie Stager, Holly Schroeder, Ann Paciorek, Dawn Wojotoshek, Francie Miller, Indira Bolden, Wendy Woolman, Bonnie Miller, Kim Mecurio, Kim Linert, Kelly Hurly, and Mr. Owens. Middle Row: Mrs. J. Smith, Penney Preston, Jill Ritz, Debbie Kennedy, Michelle Tinsley, Joanna Sweeney, Stephanie Clever, Jeannette Newton, Benita Melton, Shelly Roberts, Cindy Howse, and Abbey Adams. Key Club is a service club designed to help the less fortunate and needy. Some examples of this service include the monthly visits to Marwood Manor, puppet shows for the kids in the hospital, and food collection for the Salvation Army. The members of the 1983 Key Club are (back row) Matt Clough, Doug Dazer, Denise Coats, Dan Mertz, Joanna Sweeney, Benita Smith, Kim Prater, and Debbie Dobrowolski; (front row) Sue Gurske, Barb Gillette, Mary Crimmins, Julie Cefeske, Marilyn Lambert, Judy Schott, and Jeanette Fiedler.

DECA, the Distributive Education Clubs of America is a group of students who go to Competition in the areas of Retailing that they are studying. They compete against other schools. Members of the 1983 DECA club were Top: Lisa Beaudin, Sally Barrett, Penny Bolman, Tina Thompson, Doreen Whiley, Kelly Ward, Laurine Hunter, Sheri Thomas, Marsha Carrier, Mr. Schneider, Leanne Wilson, Leann Leathorn, Mr. Clair, and Shelly Roberts. Front row: Doug Fraser, Kathy Warner, Trina Gurnsey and Marsha McPherson. Other members were: Dan Mertz, Dwayne Adolph, Mike Heimbach, Jennifer Kidd, and Tracey O'Brien.

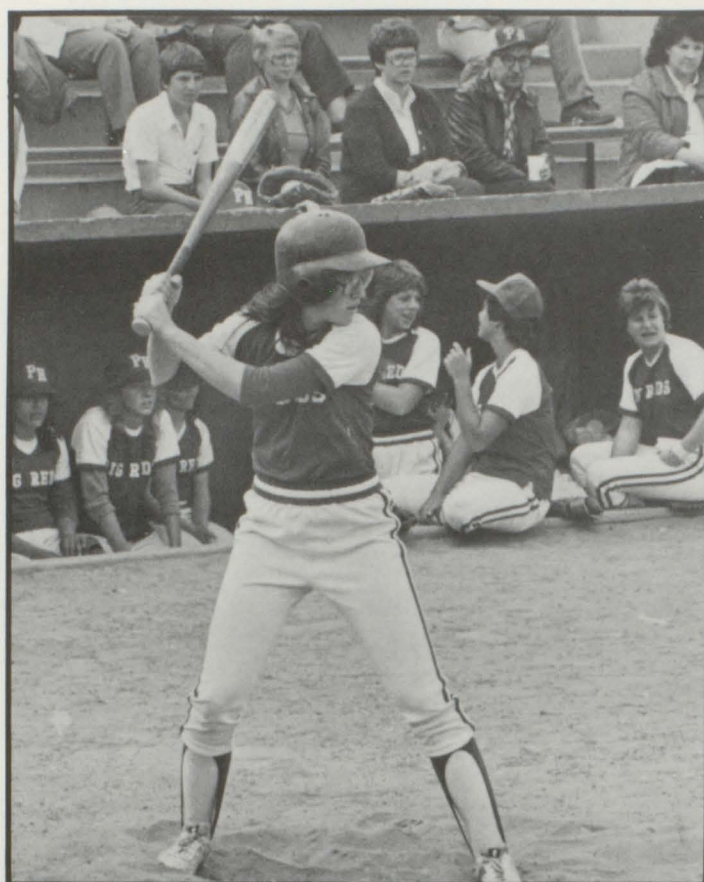

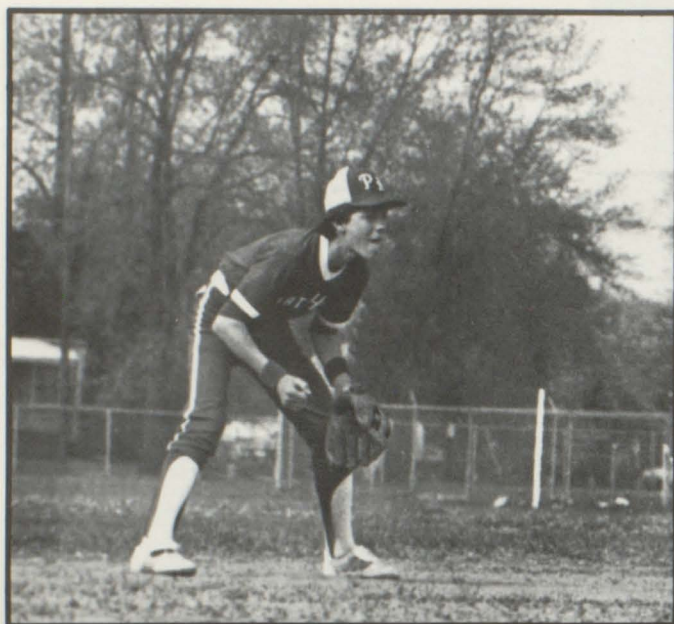

DECA competition winners of local competition move on to districts and then State Competitions. They compete by taking a test in areas like food Management, advertising, or General Merchandising. Winners of local competition were: Back Row: Gerard Watson, Kelly Frizzle, Brian Childs, Penny Bolman, Dominic Cocco, Scott Pontack. Front row: Shelley Kivel, Shelly Roberts, Trina Gurnsey, Joni Bush. The Winners will now study for competition in the District which will be taking place at Marysville High on Saturday, January 29, 1983.

DECA is a group of students who try to establish a career. By going to competition they learn about their career areas. There are Local, District, State, and National competitions. Last year we had seven winners in the state competition. The National competition is the highest competition. You must receive a first, second, or third place trophy or medal in the States to qualify for the Nationals. Last year Nationals were held in Chicago and Joni Bush was the only person from our school who qualified to go. This year's Nationals will be held June 26, 1983, in New Orleans. Mr. Clair teaches Marketing which is a big part of DECA. His guidance has made DECA one of our more active organizations.

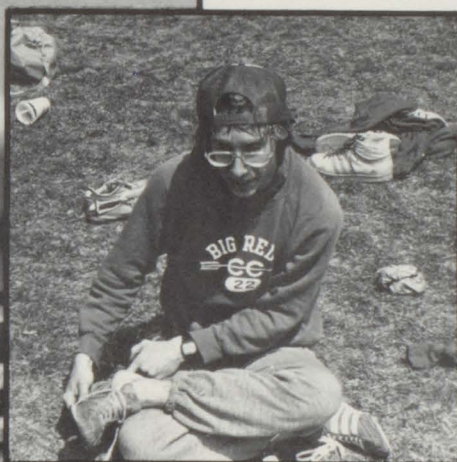

PARADE OF CHAMPIONS

High School Athletics does more than develop skill, coordination, and team work. Sports has united our student body allowing us to work together towards a common goal. Athletics are an important community activity. Thousands of fans have cheered Big Reds' sports for years. As always, our teams continue to have loyal fans, competition, and good times.

Slugger, Janie Driggers waits for the pitch. Anxiously waiting, Brian Durham prepares to catch a line drive. Pitcher, Todd Lawson, takes over for Joe Rankin. Tired Dave Buckeridge hands the baton to Brian Lyon on the way to victory.

READY . . . AIM . . . PULL!

Trap Shooting, a new activity in Big Red Country has been raising a big bang. Mr. Berger expects at least 35 students to join Trap Shooting. He also says that "Trap Shooting is a way to relax and it's something you can use throughout your life."

On loan to the Trap Shooting Club are six Remington shotguns, which can either be purchased or returned. If they decide to return the shotguns Remington will send six new guns the next year. Pictured are Mr. Berger, Margie Hagle and Andy Wagar.

Trap Shooting members this year are:

WHAT MAKES SPORTS HAPPEN

The Port Huron Area School District supplies no money for school sports. The Port Huron Athletic Association is raising money through various projects. There were garage sales in the Spring, a Sport-A-Thon in the Fall, and candy sales all-year-round. The P.H.A.A. is actually a group of parents and staff members who are concerned about our sports program. They hold monthly meetings to plan the up-coming events to raise money to continue the sports program. Approximately 195 thousand dollars must be raised to have football, boys and girls basketball, boys golf, girls tennis, girls softball, boys baseball, and girls volleyball. In the years to come, the Athletic Association would like to have several more freshman activities. This year they have added freshman football, and freshman boys basketball. The added sports would raise the amount needed to 235 thousand dollars. The P.H.A.A. is a vital part of our sports program for without its hard work, our students would be spending even less time studying and more time working on fund raising projects.

Varsity football players, Ted Chickonowski and Scott Hayes sell hot dogs and pop at the stand outside of Great Scott to help raise additional money for the P.H.A.A.

It takes more than skill to create a winning softball team and the Big Reds have it all. Spirit, pride, and team-work are just a few of the characteristics of the 1982 Varsity Softball team. Roni Lloyd, prepares to send the ball flying into the outfield. Roni was one of the Big Reds top batters this season with a record of 15 hits, 5 home runs, and 19 R.B.I.'s. EXPERIENCE IS THE KEY

JV coach Mr. Misiyak says, "It was better to give than receive." The JV team won 2 games and lost 6 which was due mostly to the lack of experience. By the end of the season they showed much improvement.

According to coach Misiyak, "We got a late start in the season, it helped contribute to the poor season. We didn't have much experience, because the most experienced players were at Varsity level."

Coaches, Popa and Repp, change from a jam-in-1 defense to the varsity's favorite zone during a time out.

FAST BREAKING

"The most enjoyable group of people I've coached" said Varsity Coach Mr. Popa. The basketball team finished with its best season in the schools history. They finished second in the EML with an 11-3 record and overall they were 12-6. Mr. Popa was impressed with the way his young team performed, considering they had very little experience.

The team was made up of two sophomores six juniors, and three seniors. The team lost three costly games at the beginning of the season, due to injuries. In order to have a winning season everyone must work together as one, from the starters to the fill-ins at the bench. The coach is a special person in the eyes of his players, someone who they will remember forever for the help and confidence he instills in them. MVP Roni Lloyd said "he was more than a friend and if anyone was picked MVP it

Co-captain Roni Lloyd finished her high school basketball career this year. Roni was voted MVP by her teammates for the second time as in many years. She holds the record for most points in a single game with 33. Roni has been voted All-State, All-Area and All-EML twice, she also received Player of the week awards from The Detroit Free Press, Times Herald, and our local radio station WHLS. Roni is the Port Huron High all time girls scoring leader with 815 career pts., she is also the girls all time leader in rebounding. "I especially enjoyed having had Roni Lloyd on the team because she was one of the finest players I ever coached and the best in P.H. History." Varsity coach George Popa. Although the team is losing three of its best players due to graduation, next season still looks extremely good.

League Record 3rd Place

Overall Record 5-8

The 1982-83 girls JV Tennis team, coached by Mr. Haas and Ms. Adams, finished the season in 3rd place, behind two state ranked teams. Mr. Epply, varsity Tennis coach, when asked how he saw the JV team said, "It was a young team gaining experience." Many had not played organized tennis before, but they made rapid improvement. If it continues they could be a strong varsity team in 2 or 3 years. The JV team was made up of almost all freshman, who although they ended up 5 and 8 in the EML showed a lot of potential and enthusiasm.

Junior Donna Monock, practices her two handed back hand for her upcoming match against, eventual league champs, Grosse Pointe South.

The 1982 Varsity Womens

VARSITY SPIKERS

This years varsity volleyball team provided some entertaining matches. Although wins were hard to come by spectators were treated to fierce competition by our spirited performers. Below Becky LaPine spikes for a point against the Northern Huskies. To the right Malisse Callahan has just completed a spike against Anchor Bay. With good form, hard work, and luck next years team should be greatly improved. "For an inexperienced team, they have worked hard," stated coach Elliot.

SETTING FUNDAMENTALS

Learning the basic fundamentals of Volleyball is what the Junior Varsity Volleyball season is all about. Coach Falk believes that, "The won lost record is not as important on the J.V. level as is learning the basic skills of the game to help the athlete become a better Varsity player." This year only two girls on the team returned with any experience. Volleyball has not been a part of the Intermediate School Competitive Sports Program. Consequently this years squad of 8 freshmen and six upperclassmen has had to learn the game from the ground up. This years star performer was Tori Hartman who also gained some varsity experience in a couple of games this year. Overall Coach Falk was impressed with the hustle and effort of her young team this year. This years team was strongest as a defensive unit. Offense will come with hard work and practice. Although the record has not been the best this year our volleyball team has had hard fought three game matches even when defeated. Overall this team should be much improved next year and several members should be fundamental improvements on the Varsity Team.

FROSH ARE BACK

Freshmen Basketball entered the season with 3 quick wins due mostly to Coach Moger whose game plan stresses a tough defense and a multiple offense. Coach Moger believes his Freshmen players will be an asset to JV and Varsity levels, "With work at basketball skills these players have much potential."

BIG RED UPRISING

Learning a "Positive attitude as a team and having respect for team, coach, and school" were the keys to Calvin Nichols year on the Junior Varsity team. Junior Prez Dixon commented that the team was "inexperienced but learned quick as the season progressed." This years continuity offense and 2-3 Zone Defense coupled with a full court man to man press helped the JV team progress from a 0 and 4 start into a respectable 500 team.

The 1982-83 Basketball Team starts the season with a new coach. Coach Ed Peltz stresses a solid defense with a patient offense. The Big Red defense consists of 5 different tactics: Box and 1, Triangle and 2, Man to Man, Zone, and Diamond and 1. These defenses put pressure on their opponents main player. The plan of attack for offense is "Work for the good shot." Guard Paul Prax says that, "As long as we got the ball how can they score."

Below forward Wayne Moak puts up a layup for an easy two. Next Sophomore starter Wendall Callahan drives for two points. On the opposite page center Bill Gilbert drives in heavy traffic against L'anse Creuse North. In the last two photos, Callahan, Gilbert, and Dwan Lindsay show the intensity of their concentration on game strategy. With a young team dominated by underclassmen, the future is bright for Big Red Basketball.

LEARNING THE ROPES

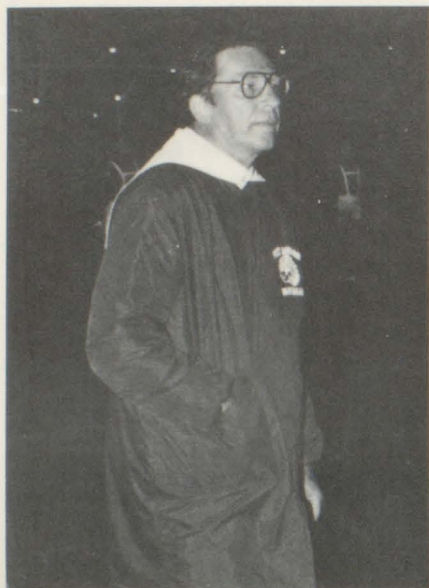

The 1982-83 season introduces three new basketball coaches; Ed Peltz, Varsity; Robert Wydrzynski, J.V. and George Moger, Freshmen. All the coaches stress a tough defense. "It is defense that keeps you in games," says George Moger. The coaches hope to bring a new dynasty of basketball and make the Big Reds a definite threat in the EML.

DESPITE FREEZING TOES BIG RED SPIRIT SHOWS

"Why go to a football game?" Some fans have asked themselves that question after they have had confetti thrown in their hair and on their clothing, been rained and snowed upon, and half frozen. Wrapped in blankets, the dedicated fans show spirit and pride at every game, whether we win or lose. Sophomore, Jill Henry commented that, "As the Big Reds come out onto the field for one of their best seasons in years, the fans cheer them on with pride and spirit." Students are not the only ones, parents, and staff members also join in on the support for athletics. "Students, parents, and staff enjoy participating in the cheers," cheerleader, Benita Melton answered when asked about the fans. As the band plays the fight song, the fans in the stands rise to their feet and join in with strong, proud voices. English teacher and devoted football fan, Mrs. Whitaker has said that "The Port Huron High School fans have the most enthusiasm and spirit I've ever seen." The Administration joins in the cheering as Mr. Wydrynski concentrates on the game from the sidelines. It was worth all of the coldness and snow when we finished second in the EML.

Big Red fans have supported athletics financially as well as with spirit and pride. Thousands of dollars are earned through gate receipts. This money is then used to help pay the overwhelming cost of having athletics. The donation of seventy-five dollars per athlete does very little to cover the $250 cost to put each player through the program.

Big Reds Celebrate with Spirit

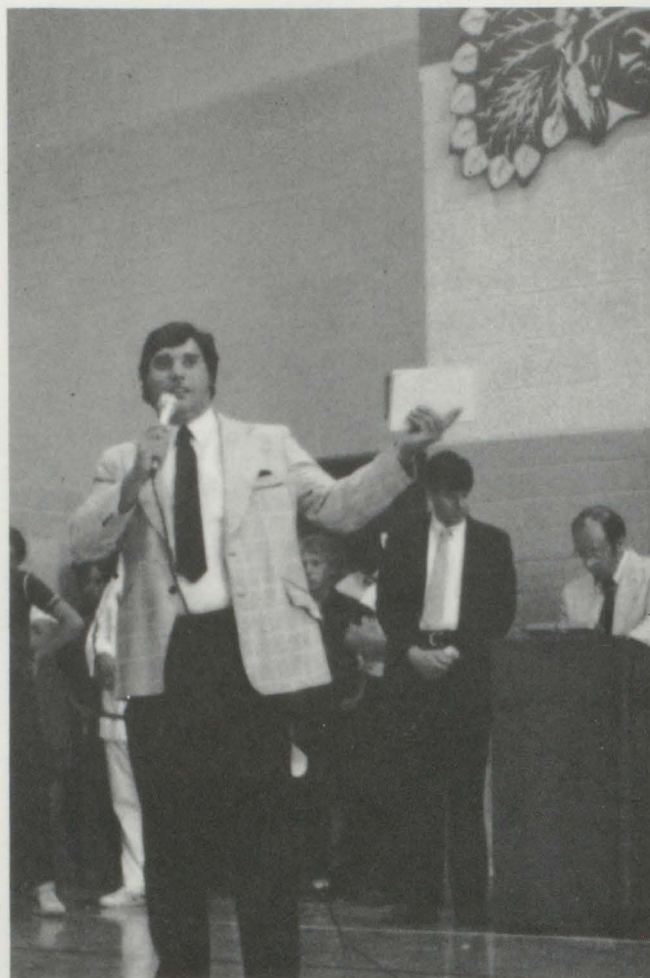

Everyone looks forward to assemblies. They demonstrate what makes Port Huron High an outstanding school. The spirit generated at our pep assemblies is enough to rock the windows, and often does. We are proud to be Big Reds and we show it any chance we get. Assemblies are just a small example of how school spirit is a part of every Big Red. Spirit is passed down from class to class. Even after graduation spirit still remains with us. Assemblies are remembered as an exciting and dramatic part of our lives as Big Reds at Port Huron High.

This year assemblies included Freshmen orientation, football and basketball pep assemblies, March of Dimes, Student Council Spirit Assembly, Christmas assembly, and our Graduation assembly.

Freshmen emotions ranged from confusion to awe as they observed cheerleaders, band members, T-Birds, administration, faculty, and 1400 upperclassmen. The reserved hush of the freshmen orientation assembly has given way to spirit and enthusiasm. All four classes have participated and enjoyed a wide range of activities organized in our assemblies by our student council.

The Northern Puppies Assembly displayed the enthusiasm of both the students and faculty. Screams of "Northern goes Cush!" are yelled as students throw "Northern" bathroom tissue.

Our mighty Big Red football team gets fired up for the Northern game. Mr. Ufford and the Big Red Chief, Jerry Arnold, welcome freshmen to their first day as Big Reds on August 30th. Mr. Burgess entertains the students with the latest jokes. Incoming freshmen learn first hand about what spirit means.

DANCE THE NIGHT AWAY!

We're the Big Reds and we've got the beat. We got a chance to strut our stuff at the many dances sponsored by the student council. For just $2.50, we could dance the night away to the many types of music played by our favorite D.J., Mike Mullins. During Homecoming, we got a chance to really dress up and dance to a live band called Dwarf. If you didn't feel like dancing, there were other things to keep you busy such as walking around in the court yard, or sitting on the benches and talking with your friends.

This year's squad has generated much fan interest and support because of the active involvement of male cheerleaders. One new dimension created by the addition of male cheerleaders is strength. With this added factor formations this year are greatly improved.

SKYWARD

Port Huron High started having male cheerleaders last year. The cheerleading coach Mrs. Lynn Secory thought of the idea and started recruiting the guys who were interested after football season.

This year the male cheerleaders with the girls went to their first competition at the Silverdome Dec. 4. Although they didn't place they gained a lot of experience for their next competition. They took first place at the Y.M.C.A. Bluewater Competition in January. At Stevenson High School in February they performed at the Regional Competition. In March the squad performed on the sidelines for the Michigan Panthers at the Pontiac Silverdome that was nationally televised. This years colorful new red and white uniforms were provided by Mrs. Secory.

The Coast Guard Cutter Bramble is a sight common to local residents but appreciated by tourists. This season the Bramble had relatively easy duty in the lower Lake Huron area as ice was kept to a minimum by our mild winter.

BIG REDS GO FOR IT

Channel 4, WDIV Detroit, has made "go for it" a part of our everyday vocabulary. This popular slogan can be heard almost every time you turn on the television. Clearly, Big Reds know how to "go for it". When it comes to supporting our school, Big Reds get involved. This involvement is contagious and it spreads throughout the community.

Senior, Rich Shepard discusses an upcoming football game with Mrs. Ewald during the 2-mile Sport-a-Thon walk. After the walk, Mr. Bolden, Mr. Lyszak, Dr. Dougherty, and Miss McMullen take a break in front of McMorran Place before the dance begins.

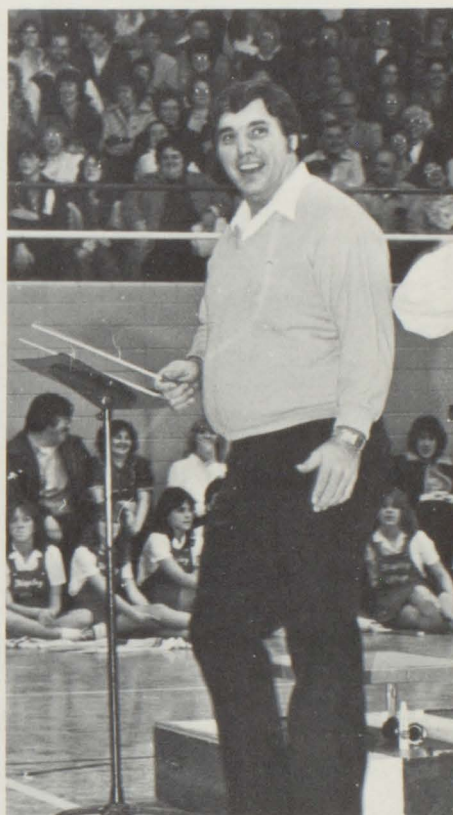

Mr. Payton's version of "go for it" is the instilling of "Pride" in hundreds of band students each year. His efforts during hundreds of hours of rehearsal each year have resulted in not only terrific musical performances but have helped thousands of students prepare for the responsibilities of life.

Another important cog in our "go for it" arsenal certainly is Mr.

Bolden, our Athletic Director. As a former counselor, Varsity Basketball coach, and now Athletic Director, he has directed the activities and support of our students, faculty, and community in an effort to maintain our Big Red Athletic Program. His hours of dedication have made our athletic program successful and have provided many opportunities for Big Red athletes.

dict "go for it" as they learn on the job career activities designed to help them join the work force after graduation. Other active Big Reds "going for it" on this page are Andy Bennett, Denis Whitmore, Cristie Burt, and Don Spicer working on a science experiment, Ms. Adams a Big Red Graduate is a permanent sub here at PH, and Mr. Semelsberger conducting the Big Red Band.

CHIEF SALESMAN

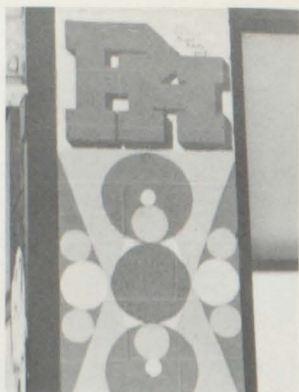

Locating a feature page on our Athletic Director strategically after the yearbook advertising section is an ironic gesture. Mr. Eugene Bolden has had his athletic directors job turned into that of a full time fund raiser. His efforts have proved tireless. If you haven't noticed, Mr. Bolden insisted that his photograph include a set of booster cables. That is typical of his spirit this year. All of his time has focused on the problem of directing hundreds of student athletes, teachers, parents, and athletic boosters in the quest for hundreds of thousands of dollars to enable our sports program to continue. With his guidance and direction, last years partial program and this years more complete program have made it possible for hundreds of student athletes to participate in school sports.

In 1976, Mr. Gene Bolden came to Port Huron High School from Oakland University. Mr. Bolden was introduced to Port Huron High School by our principal, Mr. Wydrzynski in 1975, at a championship basketball game in Detroit. Mr. Wydrzynski and Mr. Bolden were coaches in Detroit. When Mr. Wydrzynski first came up with the idea of Mr. Bolden coming to Port Huron High School to work, Mr. Bolden was not sure he wanted to make that type of move. He also had other offers to go to three different schools to work. But fortunately Mr. Bolden chose to come to Port Huron High School because he felt he could help our community. When Mr. Bolden first came to Port Huron High he was a counselor and a basketball coach. After our old Athletic Director, Mr. Laughlin retired, Mr. Bolden was appointed as our new Athletic Director. Mr. Wydrzynski said, "Mr. Bolden is a very hard working man because he has to provide everything dealing with sports, raise the money to play, buy equipment, and provide transportation." Mr. Bolden is very happy that he has the job and all Big Reds are lucky to have him.

Freshman basketball player and fledgling yearbook photographer Jeff Harrington is typical of the strength of the entire Big Red student body. Volunteer aide Theresa Fraley works hard at correcting papers.

One of the few places skiing was available locally this winter, was this mural located on the 300 hallway, next to the art room. Senior class sponsor Miss McMullen pauses with Miss Ewald and Miss Falk during the March of Dimes Walk-A-Thon.

THE ELECTRICITY

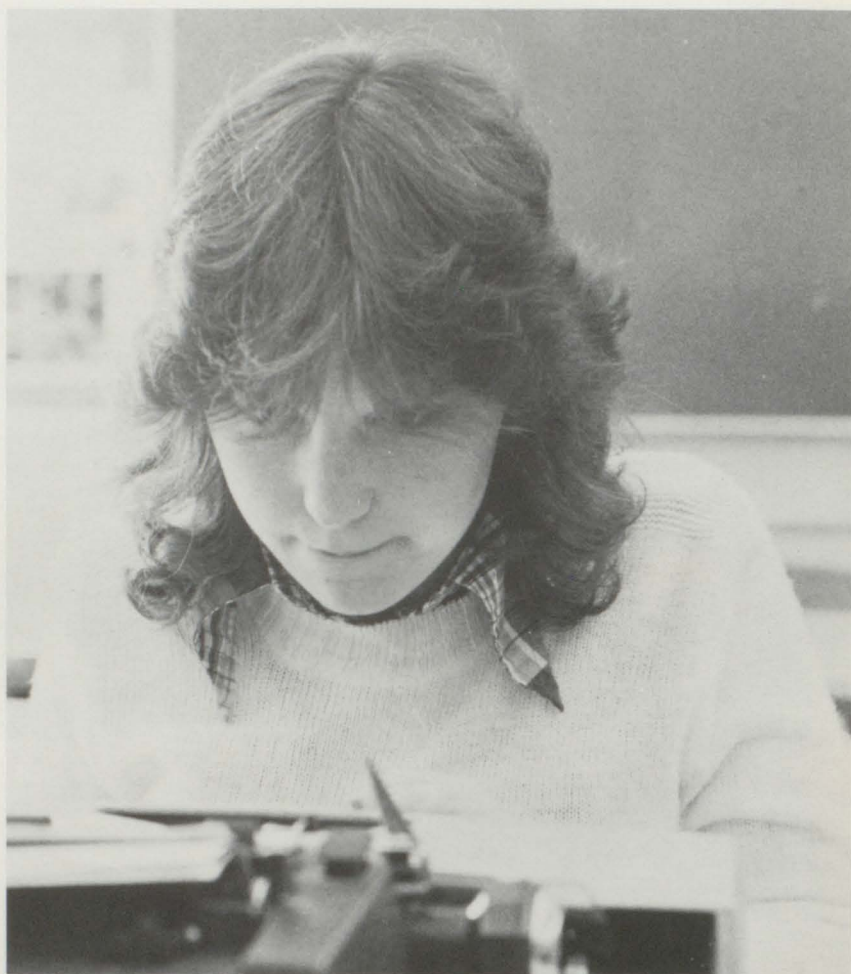

Tom-A-Hawk Mary Jo Booth and Francetta Edwards discuss the Save Our Schools campaign. Student Activities Director Harry Burgess and Junior Keith Vranish ponder ideas for the next Student Council sponsored activity. Making this year a festival of events talked about by everyone in our school community, was a primary function of this involved advisor.

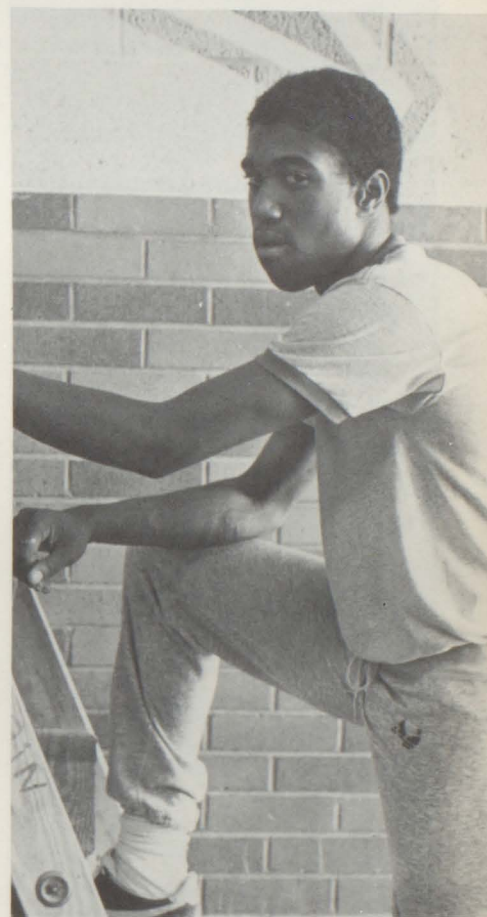

PHHS AFTER HOURS

Laura Oakes checks for typing errors in some copy to be printed in the yearbook. Laura stays after school frequently to work on the book doing just about anything that needs to be done. Here Kathy Chesney is showing her skill as a sax player in the Bandtastic. The school doors are a simple device, separating mind boggling problems and deadline pressures from freedom. Here Joe Andrews and Karen Hamlin make the break through.

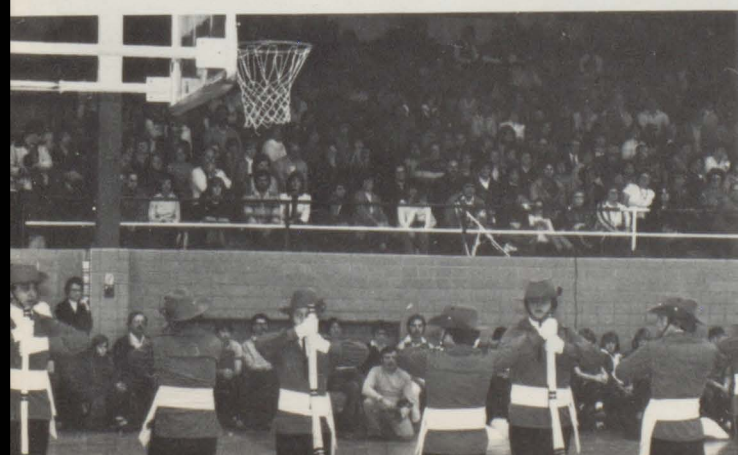

Senior Dave Felchak has just completed work on a mural in the hallway. Dave is one of the many art students who stay after school to work on murals.

After the school day is through, the track team begins to work out. First in the series of exercises are leg stretchers, as shown here by Cliff Johnson.

Matt Clough, Frank Zepezauer, and Paul Prax edit copy and layouts. Matt worked mainly on sports while Paul, Frank, and Terry Tanton were responsible for all sections of this yearbook.

The Student Port Huron High School's 77th edition of the Yearbook was printed by Inter-collegiate Press in Shawnee Mission, Kansas. Our photographers produce all of our photographs in our own lab. Color was pasted up by our staff and black and white paste up was by ICP. There are 224 pages in this yearbook, the composition is 30, and the binding is signature. This year 1,030 yearbooks were sold. Color vellum liner stock is used on both the back and front. Cover design was a collaboration by Larry Bade, David Ray, and Nate Rogan. Last years edition received a second place from the American Scholastic Press Association.

MAY I HAVE YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE . . .

Is there anything more tormenting than to start a morning off with one of Mr. Burgess's jokes? Or to hear that the basketball team lost to Mount Clemons? Like it or not, at 8:20 every morning the announcements are broadcast over our very own sound system. In addition other sound systems floated into PHHS this year, like the Zenith Portable Stereo

Junior Stan Adams holds next to his ear. Or the newest AM FM stereo cassette with stereophonic headphones modeled by Senior Trina Gurnsey. An informal poll conducted this year at PH showed that approximately one out of every four Big Reds purchased some type of "walkman" system.

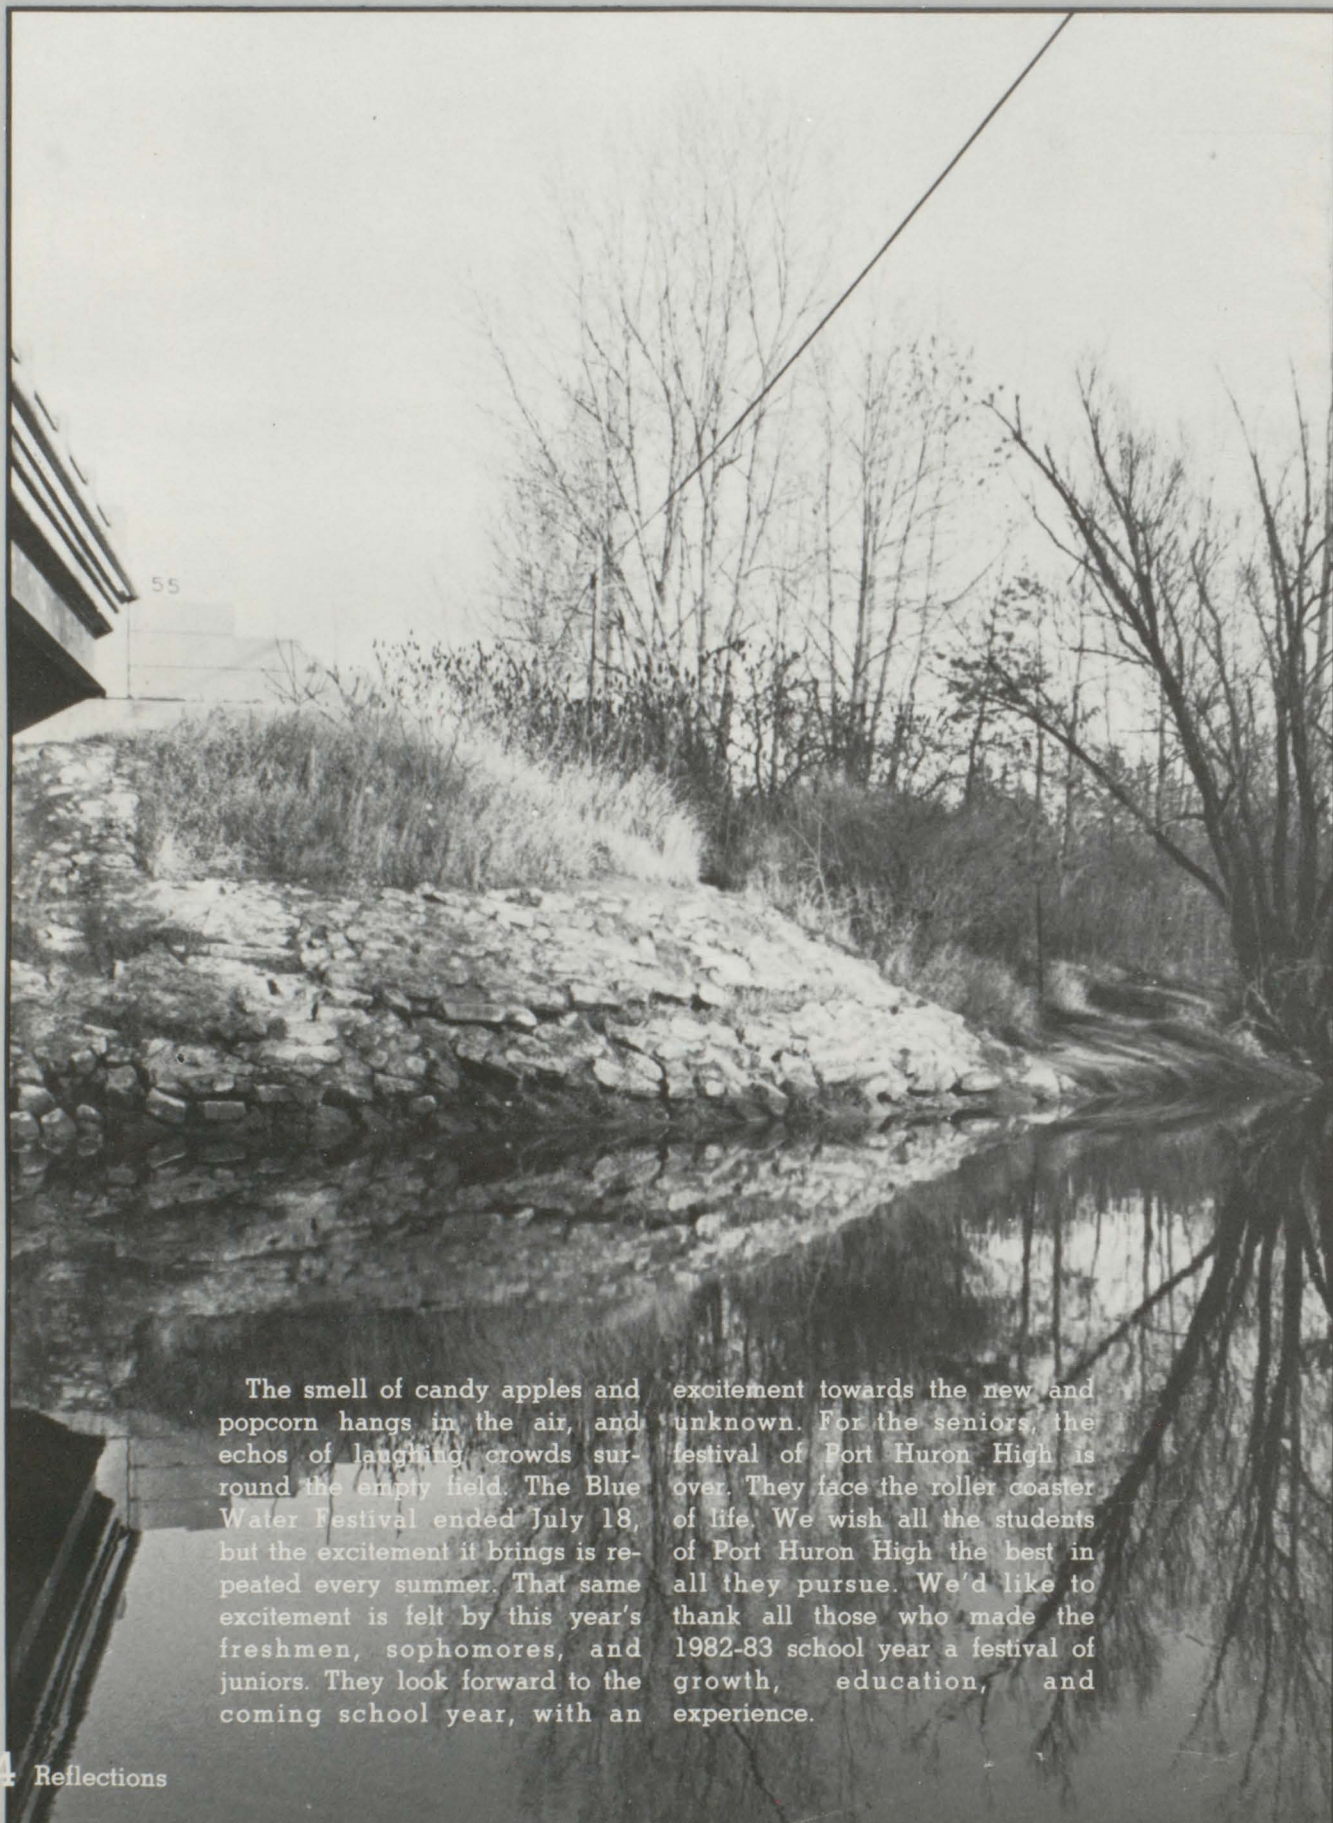

VARIETY ADDS SPICE

Despite a constant blaring from our public address system, Varsity club member, Tony Cook stops in the halls to show off his new Varsity club sweater. Meanwhile, in the Biology lab, Linda Campbell, Julie Cook, and Jonine Hyde are busy dissecting a crayfish in Mr. Christick's class.

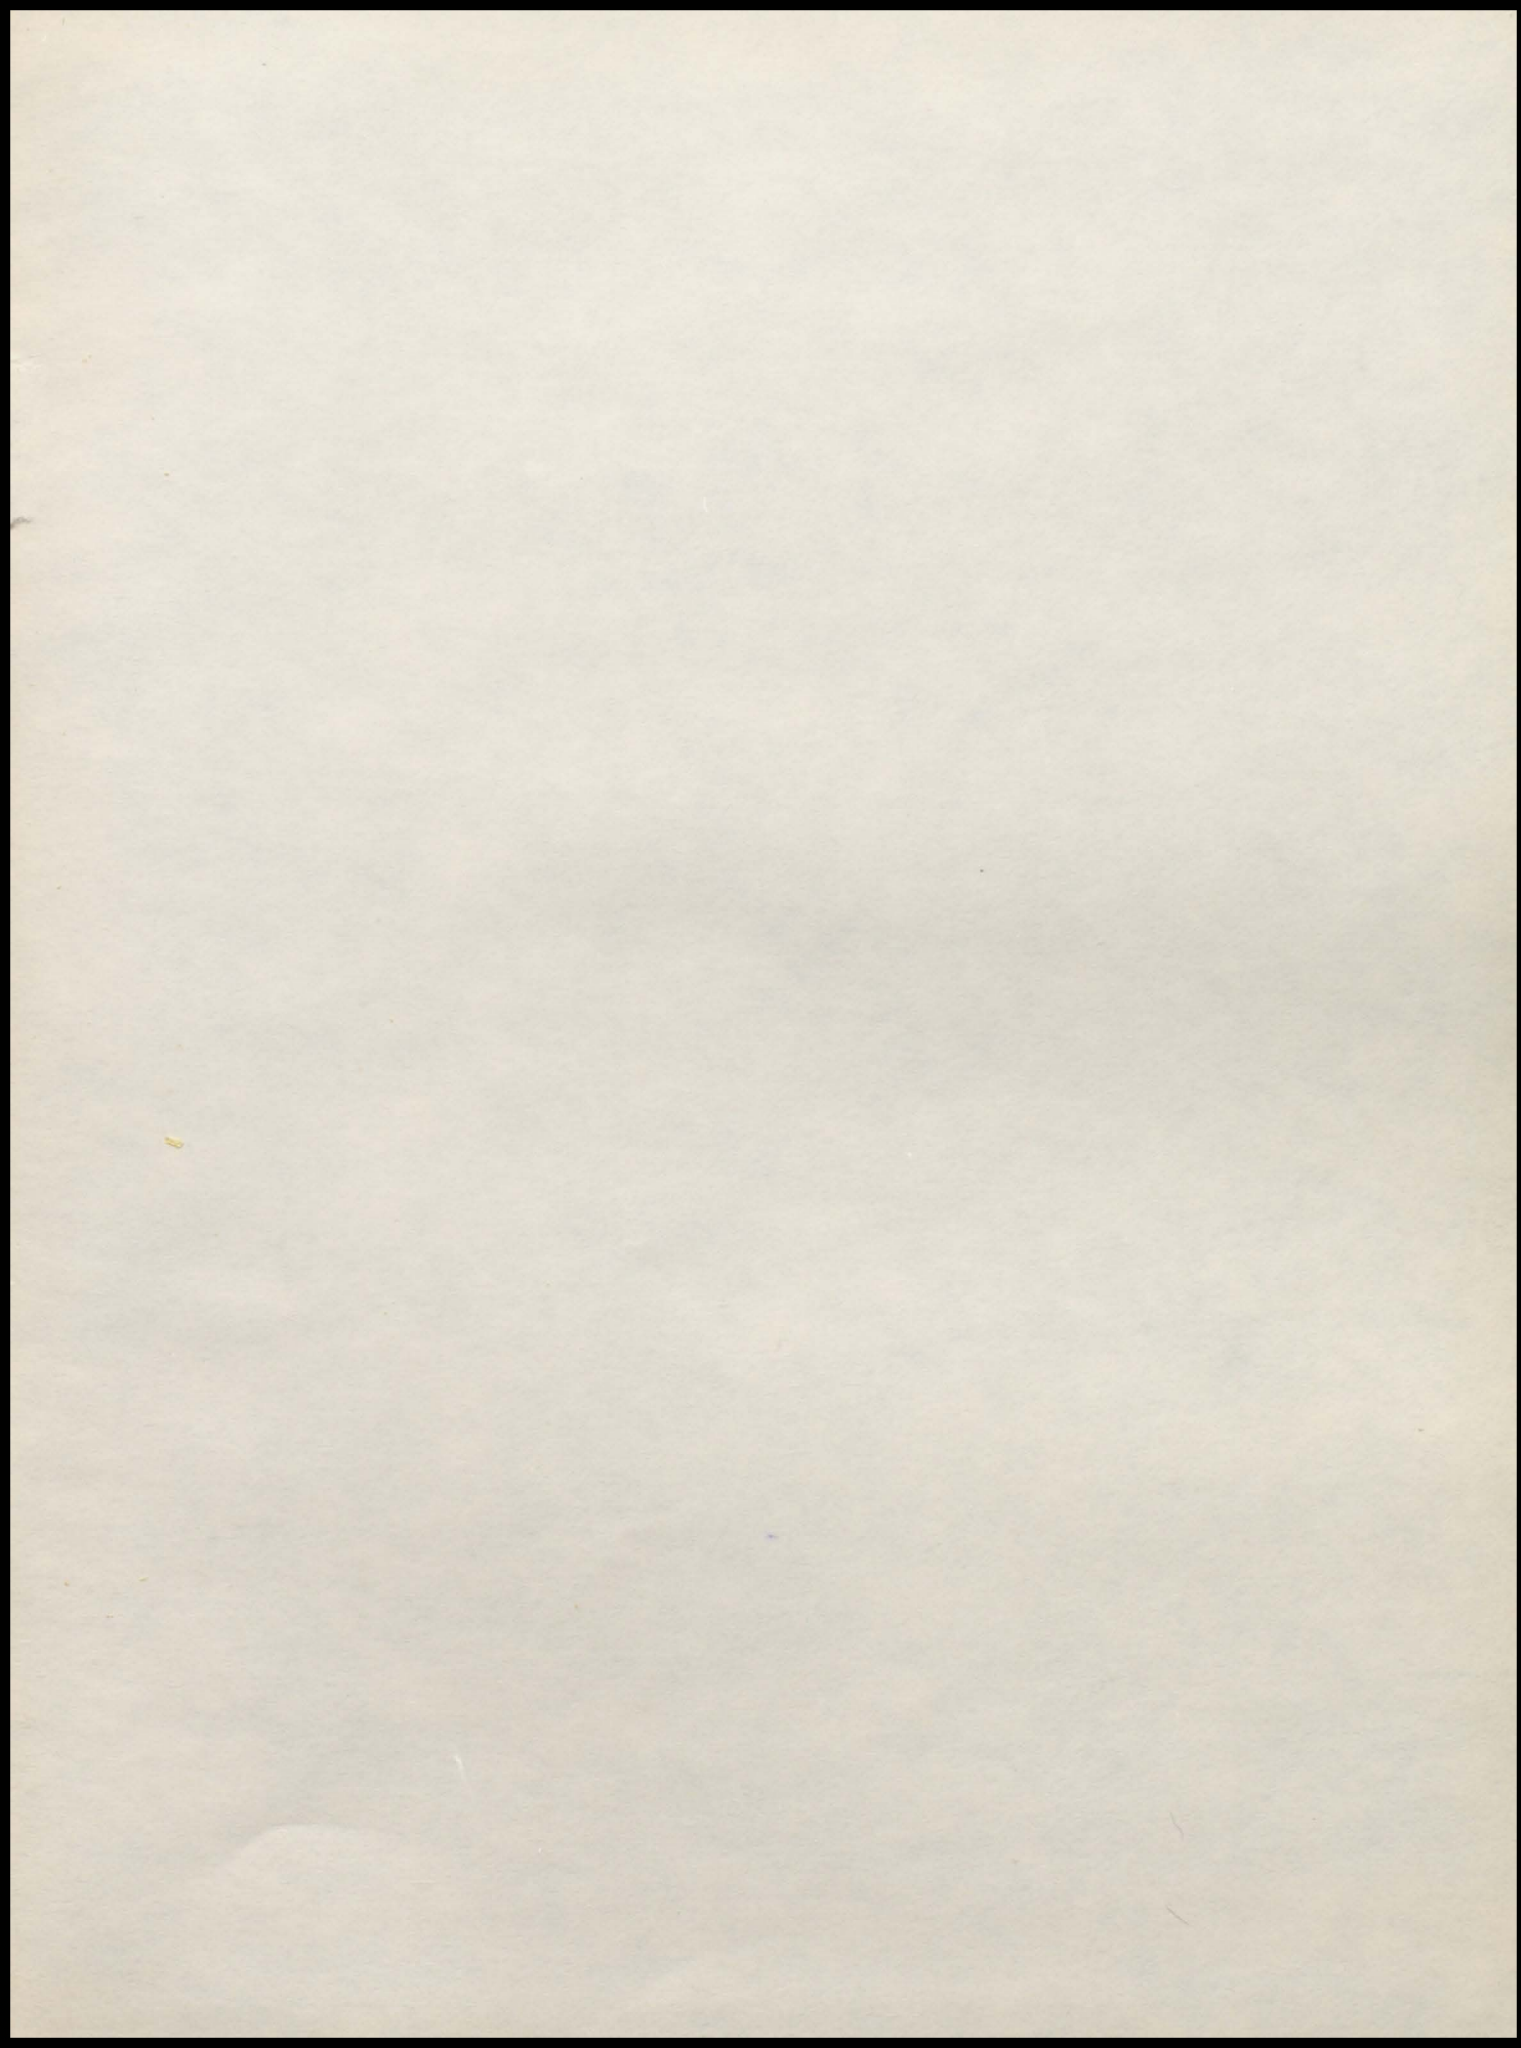

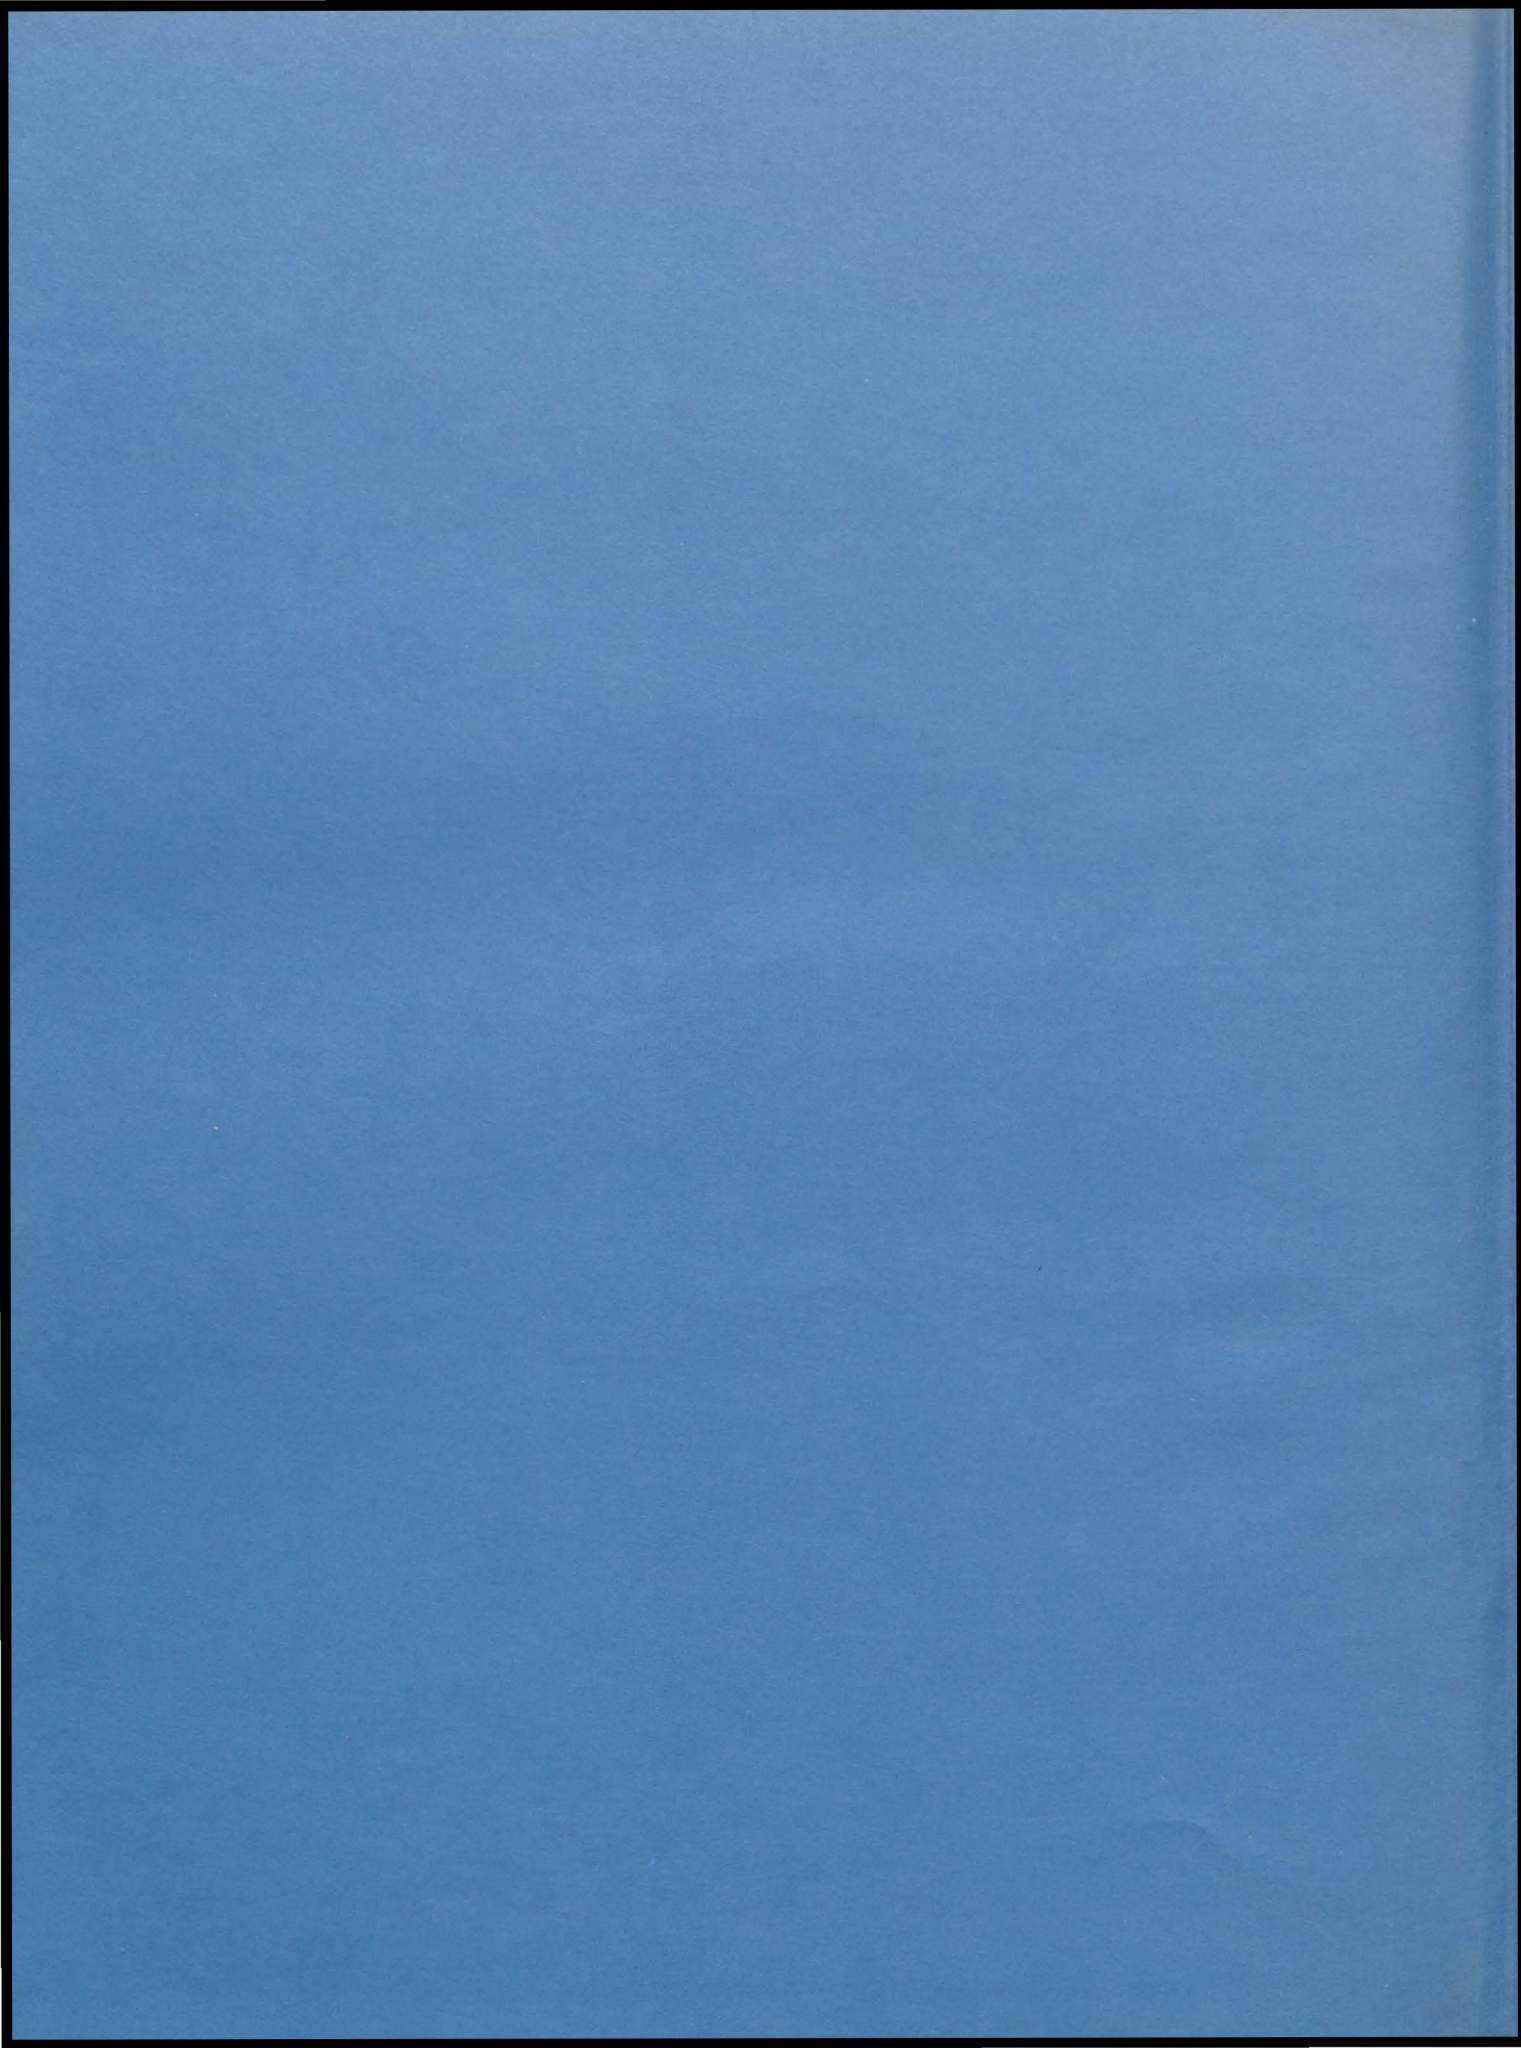

REFLECTIONS FOR 1983

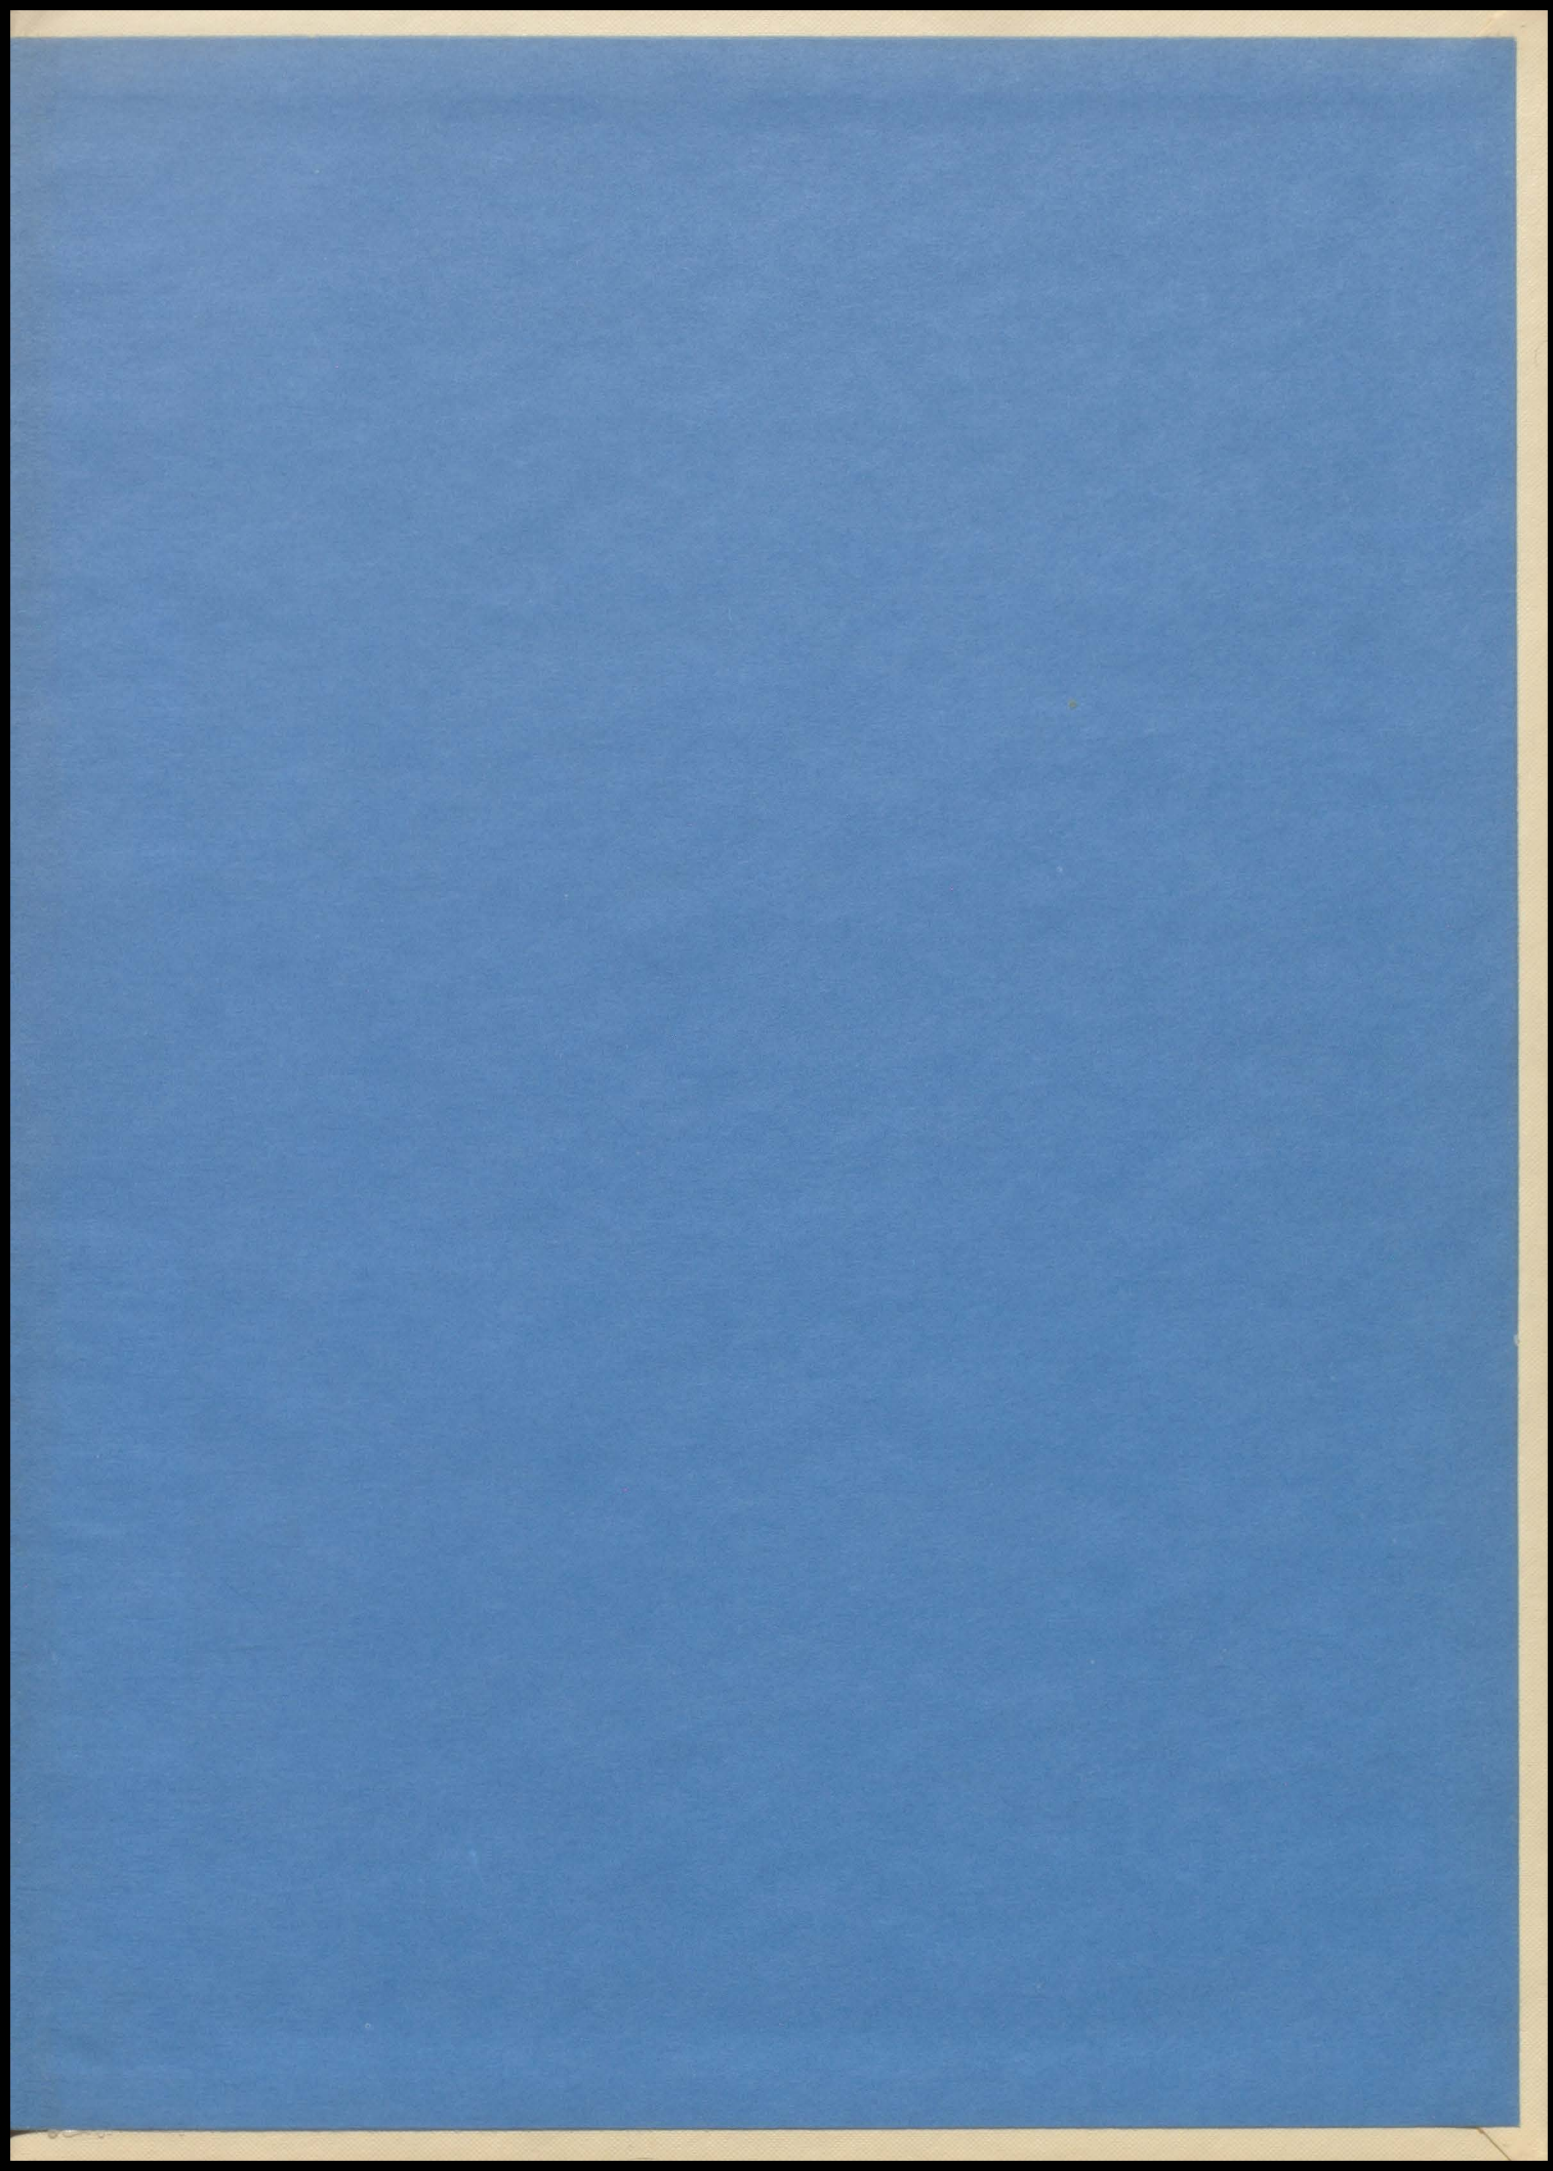

The smell of candy apples and popcorn hangs in the air, and echos of laughing crowds surround the empty field. The Blue Water Festival ended July 18, but the excitement it brings is repeated every summer. That same excitement is felt by this year's freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. They look forward to the coming school year, with an excitement towards the new and unknown. For the seniors, the festival of Port Huron High is over. They face the roller coaster of life. We wish all the students of Port Huron High the best in all they pursue. We'd like to thank all those who made the 1982-83 school year a festival of growth, education, and experience.
